ABOUT ELEMENTS

Experience the ultimate in luxury with Elements of Fragrance, where beautifully crafted scent meets performance-led design.

Our collections are created to do more than smell exceptional – they're formulated for strength, lasting impact, and powerful scents that customers love and return for. Through our exclusive brand, Elements of Home, we offer a portfolio of both luxury fragrances and everyday signature scents, designed to enhance spaces & create a memorable impression.

From our Inspired Collection of Eau de Parfums and home fragrances inspired by most-loved perfumes, to our Wellness Collection crafted to support mood and wellbeing, every product is made in our family-run facility near the Peak District, UK. Using high-quality oils and premium waxes, our friendly team carefully formulates, hand-pours and finishes each fragrance with care.

with MARINE THERAPY

Inspired by blue mind research, Ocean Calm captures the soothing power of the sea in a luxurious, marine-inspired fragrance. Notes of fresh sea spray and delicate gardenia and freesia mingle with a hint of tarragon and a warm, grounding base of sandalwood, creating an immersive sensory experience designed to calm the mind and restore emotional balance. This carefully crafted blend is neurologically tested to support mental wellbeing and to evoke the restorative effects of spending time near the ocean. Ocean Calm transforms your home into a tranquil space where you can pause, breathe, and reconnect with a sense of clarity and serenity.

BENEFITS

- Promotes relaxation and mental clarity
- Supports emotional balance and wellbeing
- Evokes the restorative power of coastal environments
- Neurologically tested to enhance mood and reduce stress
- Creates a calming, spa-like atmosphere at home

with FOREST THERAPY

Forest Therapy brings the restorative embrace of nature into your home, inspired by the ancient practice of forest bathing (shinrin-yoku) and supported by neurologically tested scent research. A rich, woodland-inspired aroma combines earthy patchouli with sweet fig and fresh pine, layered over emerald moss and rounded with delicate orris, musk, and amber. This sensory experience is designed to reduce stress, support emotional balance, and evoke the calming, grounding effects of being surrounded by trees. Immerse yourself in the natural beauty of the forest, allowing your mind and body to reconnect, restore, and rejuvenate.

BENEFITS

Supports stress relief and emotional balance

Promotes a restorative, grounded state of mind

Evokes the immersive, calming effects of forest environments

Neurologically tested to enhance wellbeing

Creates a spa-like, restorative atmosphere at home

with MOOD THERAPY

Mood Therapy is designed to uplift the spirit and enhance emotional wellbeing, using the proven connection between fragrance, emotion, and the brain. A radiant blend of shimmering pink citrus and fresh pear opens the scent, leading into a joyful floral heart of magnolia, honeysuckle, lily, and rose, before settling into a warm, comforting base of amber and musk. Developed using neurologically tested Mood Therapy research, this fragrance is crafted to evoke feelings of happiness, positivity, and emotional lightness, transforming your space into one that feels vibrant, welcoming, and balanced.

BENEFITS

- Enhances mood and promotes feelings of happiness
- Supports emotional wellbeing and positivity
- Neurologically tested to deliver targeted mood benefits
- Helps create a bright, uplifting home environment
- Encourages emotional balance and resilience

with SLEEP THERAPY

Sleep Therapy is designed to prepare the mind and body for deep, restorative rest, drawing on the powerful relationship between scent, emotion, and sleep behaviour. Soft herbal lavender and cool eucalyptus gently envelop the senses, complemented by a delicate floral bouquet of rose and jasmine. As the fragrance settles, a comforting base of soft musk creates a cocooning atmosphere that encourages relaxation and release. Neurologically tested and developed using Sleep Therapy research, this fragrance helps calm the mind, ease stress, and support a more restful night's sleep, allowing you to wake feeling refreshed and restored.

BENEFITS

Helps prepare the mind and body for sleep

Supports falling asleep faster and staying asleep longer

Promotes deep, restorative rest

Neurologically tested to enhance sleep quality

Encourages relaxation and nighttime calm
