

Sarah
Petherick.

Sarah Petherick's unique range of contemporary tableware is individually handcarved and finished by highly skilled craftsmen, using natural waste materials such as Vietnamese water buffalo horn and rosewood.

Sarah is able to take these raw materials from the rough to the sublime, fusing classical and contemporary design to produce inspired, elegant products which are not only functional but are also individual works of art. From the richest streaks of bronze and silver, to the depths of deepest black and glass-like finish, each piece is naturally tactile.
