Our Story

At A House Like This (AHLT), we believe that a beautifully designed space, infused with the power of fragrance, can inspire mindful living. Our journey began with the convergence of two creative minds, Ky and James, who met in 2010, united by their shared passion for music, design, and home interiors.

Ky's background in music, coupled with his experience in digital marketing, brought a unique perspective to the fast-paced world of corporate London. Seeking balance, he discovered the art of mindfulness, a tool that would later shape our brand's essence.

Meanwhile, James, armed with a fashion degree and a freelance career in graphic design, brought a keen eye for aesthetics and an innate sense of style to the partnership. Their shared vision was to create a business that blended their creative prowess and professional expertise.

But before they could build a business, they embarked on a renovation project, transforming a Victorian terrace in South Norwood into a purposeful, stylish home. Documenting their journey on Instagram as @ahouselikethis, they gathered a substantial following and discovered the profound impact of fragrance on mindful living.

In the lead-up to Christmas 2017, Ky and James crafted scented candles as gifts, which proved immensely popular. Their exploration of fragrances and essential oils led to the birth of A House Like This (AHLT). Fast forward to today, and AHLT has earned accolades in British Vogue, Apartment Therapy, The Independent, Attitude and Sheerlux as well as successful collaborations with renowned brands like IKEA, Rockett St George, and NOW.

With their lovable puggle, Ezra, by their side, Ky and James continue to inspire home interiors and design through their social media channels. Their online shops have evolved into sanctuaries for those seeking high-quality fragrance products, skincare, and mindfulness content to elevate their homes and nurture their well-being.

AHLT's journey is far from over. Our interactive Aromatherapy Collection developed in lockdown proves to be a new way forward for AHLT and there are much more immersive fragrance and sensory experiences to come!

Candles

We've honed our candle making craft since 2016 and each small batch candle is hand poured in our home studio with a scent throw that rivals many others.

Each candle burns cleanly and fills your space with irresistible mindful aroma.

Each Signature Candle is housed in a timeless black translucent gloss vessel sourced in the UK which allows a subtle flicker of flame to pass through offering a sensory delight every time you light it up.

Repurpose your vessel long after it's burned as a handy plant pot, cosmetics vessel or desk tidy!

Melt Bars

Discover each of our Signature scents in Wax Melt Bars made from the same 100% natural sustainably sourced soy wax. Snap off a few squares of scented wax and drop them into a wax warmer to release hours of delicious fragrance.

Scent Solutions

Available in our core Signature Scent Library scents our Scent Solutions are premium phthalate free fragrance oils designed for diffusing in our Ceramic Aroma Diffusers.

Available in both 10ml and 30ml bottles.

The Mindful Edit

Harness the power of 100% natural essential oils with The Mindful Edit Essential Oil Blends Collection. Unlock a world of mindfulness tips, treatment tracks and curated sounds with our Self Care Guides. Each oil is designed to enhance your mood and contains interactive codes that trigger sound and visual content to boost the aromatherapy treatment.

Eco Friendly Candle Packaging

We've prided ourselves in having limited packaging for the majority of our collection however have listened to our customers needs and found a sustainable solution to offer packaging for our Signature Scent Library Candles on request. To preserve our beautifully scented candles we have optional packaging which you can request as part of your order instead of a wooden lid at no extra cost. The packages is fully recyclable cardboard and can protect candles when stocked in stores or shipped.

I've followed AHLT for over a year and finally made the leap after getting a candle as a gift. Glad I did! The candles smell incredible and last a long time. The order said it would arrive in 5 business days and got there in 2. Definitely an all around great experience!
