A photograph of Keith Brymer Jones, a middle-aged man with short grey hair, wearing a black t-shirt and dark blue denim overalls. He is standing in a workshop, leaning against a light-colored metal door frame. His right hand is resting on the top of the door frame. On the door, there are two papers pinned to it; the one on the right is a white sheet with black text that reads: "Neil Marshall lives to the right of the building", "Victoria's Café on the corner", and "Tom West door workshop". Below the papers is a small, square, metallic object. The background shows a workshop environment with various tools and materials.

Life, Clay and Everything...

Keith Brymer Jones is a master ceramicist and design expert who has over four decades of knowledge and experience under his belt. He is the designer behind the award-winning Keith Brymer Jones Word Range and also works collaboratively with both British & International designers, artists, illustrators & fashion houses.

“ I am very much a believer in producing work of quality and an aesthetic that stands the test of time. We all have a favourite mug and hopefully yours is one of mine! ”

Keith Brymer Jones

After an early career devoted to ceramics, Keith created pots and different shapes for a string of large retailers including Laura Ashley, Heals, Monsoon, Habitat and Conran. In 2008, he met his business partner, Dominic Speelman and subsequently joined MAKE International as Director and Head of Design. They set up a studio in a converted bakery based in Whitstable along the Kent coastline. Keith designs every single item on his potter's wheel before he takes the prototypes to China to work with his colleagues at the factories. Keith visits the factories at least twice a year to meet with his quality control team on the factory floor to ensure the highest standard of quality is maintained. Every item in the Word Range is hand-debossed and checked by the quality control team at least three times. As the business grew, Keith expanded his Word Range and began collaborating with other designers, illustrators and creators to bring inspiring ceramic products to those who love design.

Keith's Word Range has produced over 500 products and it is sold in over forty countries with a large and loyal following. To this day, the Word Range follows Keith's design philosophy: 'to create simple yet stylish products which are pleasing to the eye, practical in the modern home and, above all, make people happy!'

Keith is a passionate advocate for art, craft and design education. He believes that everyone should have the opportunity to make and create. He has been appointed patron for The National Society for Education in Art and Design. He can often be seen extolling the virtues of creativity to students of all ages at various schools, colleges and events.

In 2015, he debuted as the expert judge on the TV show 'The Great Pottery Throw Down', where his readiness to shed tears at seeing the contestants' work attracted many comments in the media. The sixth series of the show concluded in early 2023 to unanimous praise.

In 2022, Keith released his autobiography, 'A Boy in a China Shop: Life Clay and Everything', and subsequently went on a joyful tour around the UK to a sell out crowd. 2023 has certainly been a very busy year for Keith and this is likely to continue through to 2024. Keith bought a huge chapel in North Wales earlier this year and is in a process of renovating it to both a studio and living space. It will be the first time Keith will have owned his own studio. A film crew has already been following this project and to be aired in the near future!

The Studio Range

“ I was holed up in my Whitstable based studio with a lot of stoneware clay. I have often been fascinated by different clays giving you a different aesthetic. I wanted to produce a range that was more organic in both its look and approach to that of the Word Range.”

FRANCES COLLETT

Frances Collett is a British designer and artist who founded her design business in 2019. Her design signature of mid-century style forms are fused with softer Scandinavian and French delicate touches, which can be found on large scale prints, stationery and homeware.

Painting, drawing, and photography are the route of all design and planning for Frances. Designing from the minute that she could hold a pencil, Frances Collett started off her design career in jewellery, becoming a qualified silversmith with the help of The Prince's Trust.

She continued the journey of her love of design in 2012 when she studied fashion design, followed by surface design at UAL. She moved to Bristol to explore its art and design scene, where she founded her design business, specialising in mid-century and Scandi style visuals.

Keith Brymer Jones has curated a stylish range of ceramic mugs to showcase Frances' talent and offer a design-led classic work-of-art for the home.

mini moderns®

Often described as ‘cult Brit homewares brand’, Mini Moderns was established in 2006 by London based designers, Keith Stephenson and Mark Hampshire.

Working from their Camberwell studio, the brand specialises in applied pattern across a range of products, including wallpapers, fabrics, cushions, bedding and ceramics.

The duo’s design influences encompass mid-century British textiles, ceramics and collectibles. Sharing a passion for social history, Mark and Keith’s work is often informed by music, literature and travel, leading them to describe their design ethos as ‘pattern with a story’.

As well as launching their own collections, Mini Moderns have worked on many commissions in the culture sector, including collaborations with the Courtauld Gallery, Southbank Centre, National Theatre, London Transport Museum, Turner Contemporary and Museum of London.

Their best-selling book, Mid-century Modern Living: The Mini Moderns Guide to Pattern and Style by Keith Stephenson and Mark Hampshire was published by Kyle Books in 2019.

Mark and Keith first met Keith Brymer Jones when they were all exhibiting at a London trade show in 2015. Perhaps long overdue, ‘the Modern Kitchen Collection’ curated by Keith Brymer Jones is finally here!

KIRAN RAVILIOUS

Kiran Ravilious is a pattern designer who uses the old fashioned technique of lino printing to develop her designs for textiles and paper goods.

Established in 2012, her designs have a hint of the tropics to them as she was raised in Singapore. While never strictly botanical, her work is a unique fusion of very different inspirations: the lush tropical growth of her homeland with the delicate patterns of English nature. She hand-prints beautiful designs for fabrics, wallpapers and stationery at her studio in Leicester. Her work is a 'mix of both worlds', drawing on the traditional hand-printing techniques of Asia and the artistic legacy of the Ravilious family that she has married into.

Kiran Ravilious has been commissioned by Heals and has her designs stocked in many museums, galleries and shops across the UK including Kew Gardens, Fortnum and Mason, Daunt Books, Lutyens & Rubinstein and more. Her work has been featured in publications including The Guardian, The Sunday Times, Homes & Antiques, House Beautiful, Period Living and Country Living magazines.

Carefully curated by Keith Brymer Jones, we are delighted to be bringing her beautiful designs onto these range of ceramic mugs. An exciting new collaboration which adds a touch of sophistication to your home.
