HELLO!

Hello, We are Happy Go Lucky!

When I say 'we', I really mean me, Ashley. I am the one woman band behind the brand!

It all started in 2018, after working in commercial illustration, gift, greeting cards and stationery design for over nine years, I wanted an outlet for my own creativity and Happy Go Lucky was born!

I want to make designs to celebrate the small moments when we give each other cards and write small messages of love in them. I love to think about where our cards end up, for what special moment they are given, that's what really makes me love what I do!

My hope is that all our products to add to everyday human happiness, whether it's something as small as giving a card or having a print in your hallway that gives you joy when you're pass it in the morning!

A bit about my products -

All my products are proudly made here in the UK in small batches.

My cards, wrap and prints are all printed on to 100 % recycled paper and card. The best part is that even our envelopes are made from recycled paper too so everything can be recycled again!

I pack all our products in eco plastic that is made from corn starch that can be composted or recycled!
