Our story

In the ever-changing world of home and lifestyle, MeanWhile stands as a beacon of tranquility and thoughtful design. Originating from Morgan Wright Ltd, a family business founded 11 years ago, MeanWhile is the culmination of a journey that began as a distributor for homeware brands.

In 2018, driven by a desire to create something unique, we launched our own brand, MW Home. However, we soon realised the need for a name that truly reflected our ethos and values, leading to the birth of MeanWhile...

A wooden spatula with a flat, slightly rounded head and a long, thin handle, resting on a wooden surface. The wood has a natural grain and some darker spots. The background is a wooden surface with dramatic lighting, showing strong shadows and highlights.

Acacia Wood Spatula
MWWD19
RRP £9.95

A small, hand-carved wooden scoop made of acacia wood, featuring a shallow, rounded bowl and a long, tapered handle. It is positioned vertically on a light-colored wooden surface with a prominent grain and several knots. The scene is lit from the side, creating strong shadows and highlights that emphasize the texture of the wood.
