Less time, less faff, better books.

Great retail tells a story. Books add colour and joy to any retail space. They take us to new places. Inspire us to be better people.

We believe books have a place anywhere. So, we want to make it easy for any retailer to curate and sell beautiful book ranges. With Bookspeed you can source the best books from 100s of publishers in one single order.

Less time, less faff, better books. Simple.

How we make your life easier.

Simplify your book-buying experience

No more juggling multiple book suppliers.
We deliver a full book range in one order.

Introduce you to the best books

We survey the whole book market, so you don't have to. Our data and experience help us identify what sells well in different retail settings.

Pick up the tricky bits

We take care of the fiddly book-buying admin, freeing you to deliver retail excellence.

“Bookspeed has been a joy to work with and really helped us get a book range together that our customers find inspiring. For me, who oversees a lot of different areas of sourcing, it’s quite hard to be a specialist in everything and stay on top of new book releases. It would probably be impossible without that kind of partner.”
