RUNNING

WITH

SCISSORS

After ten years selling fashion and giftware brands to some of the most exciting and resilient stores on the UK high street, I created RUNNING WITH SCISSORS to celebrate all the things that bring me joy - bright colours, bold design and dry humour!

For the 2025 collection, the ambition was to create designs that AI could never churn out - cards that celebrate quirky, hand-crafted design combined with funny observations about the absurdity of life and growing older.

Your customer will find the range unique but also offer them the chance to play with a shared sense of humour - quirky musings that are universally understood. Or in less convoluted tones, they are funny and they stand out!

I hope you love them as much as I do!
