STOCKIST REVIEWS

WHAT OUR STOCKISTS THINK

PRIOR

As both a shop owner and a maker, I know the relationship from both sides :) Angelica is one of those dream brand owners because her work arrives on time, well-packaged, and the communication is great. Any issues (i.e., occasional damaged stock from a delivery) are dealt with quickly, and requests for product information/product images are sent almost immediately. As a maker myself, I know that this takes time, organization, and dedication. Another important factor of why we also think Tribal Unicorn is a great brand to stock is the appreciation and promotion of our shop. Physical shops work very hard promoting the work of independent makers, but often brands do not actively mention their stockists. Angelica appreciates her stockists and the need for customers to smell and touch products and actively promotes us.

Beck - Founder of Prior Shop in Bristol - Stocked since 2021

The candles have been a really good seller for us. The quality and customer service are excellent.

Anita Thorpe - Founder of Diverse Gifts in Brixton - Stocked since 2023

Jamii

We've worked with Tribal Unicorn for five years and it's been brilliant. All products are colourful, vibrant and popular on site. Angie is great with communicating updates and always prompt when organising the delivery of new stock.

Courtney Ismain - Co founder of Jamii - Stocked since 2019

Founder's Note

Hey there, I'm Angelica, the Head Candle Freak of Tribal Unicorn Candle Bar. Our story began in 2017 when I started making 3D-embedded candles on my kitchen table as a hobby, which quickly became a beautiful obsession.

Tribal Unicorn is an East London-based, ethically conscious lifestyle brand that's all about luxury fragrance and home decor with a bold and beautiful aesthetic. Inspired by my British Caribbean roots, our candles are hand-poured and hand-decorated using environmentally friendly, raw materials and the highest quality fragrance oils, essential oils, Coconut and Rapeseed wax available.

Our customers unapologetically celebrate their individuality and culture, empowering your personality, and encouraging joy in their mental health and well-being routines.

Whether you're vibing at home with 'Kiki' or setting up the perfect dinner party with 'Cashmere', Tribal Unicorn is the glow-up every candle freak needs. Our candles spark joy, adding that extra touch of luxury and beauty to every life moment.

CUSTOMER REVIEWS

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS THINK

Excellent candles! I am obsessed with candles and buy them regularly, each of these (I have 3 and a set of wax melts) have a rich, yet gentle scent. They are absolutely beautiful to look at and can tell they have been crafted with love & care. Excellent wax and the burn time is really generous even for someone who leaves them burning for ages. Each package comes with a handwritten postcard which just adds a personal touch to end purchase. Wonderful company amazing products!
