As we leap into another new year, 2025, a new era of surprises awaits us in this wild and brave new world.

When I was a kid, I was fascinated by the works of Aldous Huxley. He predicted technology's rise and its potential downsides. Huxley warned us not to lose our humanity to the trap of convenience and fleeting pleasures. He encouraged us to find deeper meaning and create our own paths.

Last year, we partnered with Pratt Institute for a Design Challenge that produced five imaginative, book-themed items: the Book Voyager, a felt book cover and stand; Cookbook Ends, which double as utensil holders; the beautiful Annotation Garden sticky notes; the adorable Pen Pup, a playful pen holder; and Cookie Coasters, a delightful treat for your coffee table.

We also had the pleasure of collaborating with UK-based studio Goodlines, whose five whimsical Kidoki designs—Monster Bubbles, Butterfly Lenses, Frog Jumpsies, Kitty Juggling Balls, and Fruity Harmonicas—brought endless smiles to young and old alike.

Huxley's appreciation for nature reminds us to reconnect with the outdoors, a philosophy embraced by Huckleberry creators Koens and Middelkoop. Their latest innovations include a Pocket Microscope, reusable Water Balls, Clay Creatures, and a playful Pull Helicopter—encouraging kids to explore, create, and marvel at the world around them.

"There is only one corner of the universe you can be certain of improving, and that's your own," said Aldous Huxley. Hector Serrano embodies this philosophy with his imaginative creations, including the Constellation Swatch Book, Mushroom Herb Infuser, and Crafters' Paint by Numbers set, inspiring us to make small, meaningful improvements in our own lives.

Our long-time collaboration with Koen Campman, a former winner of our Design Challenge with the Netherlands Consulate, brought forth Paws and Play, a delightful deck of cards that entertains while teaching fun canine facts.

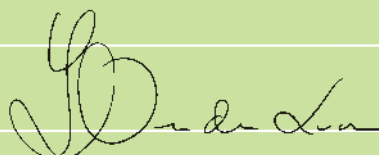

Barbara Isenberg, a New York designer and former teddy bear entrepreneur, joined us with a fresh perspective. Her clever Counter Intelligence Pop-Up Sponges, Good MouseKeeping Microfiber Cleaning Mouse, and Hedgehog Tech Cleaner bring joy to everyday chores.

Goodlines' Inkerie collection brings a touch of elegance to stationery with the Magnetic Note Roller and metal Magnetic Clips, proving that even desk accessories can inspire creativity and harmony.

This year, the Kikkerland Design Team (KDT) continues to delight with quirky creations including the Banana Lick Mat for Kobe, the Kitty Prop Kit for our feline friends in the Kiko line, Sweet and Fruity Paper Fans, and the Lemon Squeezer featuring a smiley face.

At Kikkerland, we believe that great design has the power to transform the ordinary. As Huxley wrote, "Most human beings have an almost infinite capacity for taking things for granted." Our mission is to turn everyday objects and new products into something special.

We hope you love our latest collections as much as we've enjoyed creating them. Together, let's continue to explore, imagine, and transform the world around us—one thoughtful design at a time.

Jan van der Lande

Kobe is our beloved office dog and family pet. He is also the inspiration behind our line of dog products that celebrate the relationships we have with our trusty companions.

Dogs teach us what matters most in life; to live in the moment, don't hold grudges, love unconditionally, play every day, and drink lots of water!

For these and many more reasons to love dogs we support the International Street Dog Foundation who is dedicated to saving the lives of street dogs around the world.

Kiko

Welcome to Kiko, Kikkerland's first collection of cat toys. Kiko, the cat, is originally from Finland where she grew up in a home surrounded by Scandinavian design – characterized by light wood and natural materials, but most important, a clutter-free environment. Kiko takes a stand against clutter by playfully batting away unwanted items from the desk!

The Kiko collection celebrates the unique bond we share with our feline best friends and embodies the essence of cats and their delightful quirks. After all, cats remind us to embrace our little curiosities, practice self-care, remember that patience is a virtue, love unconditionally, and of course, indulge in daily play!

Yours truly,
Kiko.

KIDOKI™

KIDOKI is a children's toy brand that encourages imagination, nurtures personality, and helps develop motor and coordination skills through interactive play.

Kikkerland Design developed KIDOKI along with our new friends at Goodlines, a design group based in England. This brightly colored, retro-inspired collection of games, toys, and tools includes a mix of classic twists and innovative new ideas. KIDOKI toys are targeted towards children aged 3+ and utilize fun shapes and textures that provide a tactile experience.

Sustainability was also top of mind when creating this collection. KIDOKI toys are made with only FSC certified wood. FSC certification ensures that products come from responsibly managed forests that provide environmental social and economic benefits. Additionally, the packaging used for all KIDOKI products is plastic-free, biodegradable, and attractive enough to be gift-ready just as it is!
