

houseof

houseof was started in 2019 and our mission is to provide consumers with lighting which enhances their lives and makes homes happy.

We believe that lighting is the most important feature of your interior and it is about quality of light, not quantity. Good lighting can change the mood of an interior and make your home feel happy.

houseof is a destination for lighting and our interiors obsessed customers come to us to be at the forefront of interior trends. All of our lighting is designed in-house in our Hackney studios.
