With Christmas around the corner, the renowned Suffolk based company Vintage Playing Cards has curated a one-stop-shop of style-conscious and fabulously sustainable products. From bottle-openers to bunting and everything in between, there is something to suit every unique taste this festive season. Made with sustainably sourced and/or vintage materials wherever possible and using eco-friendly practices, you can gift guilt-free with a Vintage Playing Cards product.

Festive Bunting

Looking for quirky Christmas decoration for a stylish household? Vintage Playing Cards has covered all bases with this distinctive Christmas bunting. As with most VPC products, they make use of a genuine vintage playing card which provides a charming addition to the festive home. Capturing seasonal and clever slogans, the bunting is bound to stand out whether you hang it along your banister or use it to adorn your Christmas tree. RRP from £20.00.

Chocolate Filled Mugs

Made from fine bone china and filled with chocolate – these unusual mugs make excellent stocking fillers. The mugs are available in the classic VPC design Queen of Hearts and King of Hearts along with a delightful, personalised initial option available in metallic gold. RRP from £13.50.

Popping Corks

Rustically cool, these bottle openers are made from recycled pallets and one-of-a-kind, genuine vintage playing cards. Available in a multitude of witty slogans, or completely personalisable depending on your preference, these versatile gifts are perfect for beer or cider lovers this Christmas. The mechanism contains a magnet inserted underneath the cards so that your bottle top is cleverly caught when it falls. No need to bend down and pick up the tops. The opener is made of durable cast iron, and it comes with wall fixings so is easy to put up. RRP from £35.00.

Season's Greetings

It wouldn't be a Christmas with Vintage Playing Cards without a stunning selection of Christmas cards, making use of the backs of genuine playing cards from the 1920's and beyond, which feature beautiful retro designs. Due to the ornate nature of the greeting cards, they become a beautiful gift within themselves. Available in hundreds of different stunning designs, these cards are real showstoppers, especially in the holiday period. RRP £4.95.

Wrapping it Up

The company also offers letter gift tags (pictured centre) with can be personalised to the recipient's initial creating a memorable gifting experience. RRP from £6.95.

About Vintage Playing Cards:

Formed in 2008, the idea for Vintage Playing Cards came about when founder, Tracy Kemp, stumbled upon a beautiful art deco pack of playing cards which had a few cards missing. Now useless as a game, the cards were too beautiful to throw away, so she upcycled them into greeting cards.

Vintage Playing Cards now specialises in greeting cards, frames and gifts made, and inspired, from original vintage games.

Stylish, retro and unique – each Vintage Playing Card piece is a true original which is a fabulous addition to any style-conscious home.

Vintage Playing Cards has grown from a small cottage business to supplying renowned shops such as Selfridges, Liberty, Oliver Bonas and Fortnum & Mason.

Run by Kemp, the team are based in a small studio in Suffolk, where most of our products are handmade.

Vintage Playing Cards is constantly evolving with new designs and products and welcomes commissions.
