LITTLE OBJECTS OF HAPPINESS

January 2023

Hello!

Welcome to Studio Lowen, we are a small creative studio based in West Cornwall. Founded in the Autumn of 2018 by Lisa in her garden studio when she needed a humble business card holder, and decided to make her own. Since then the collection has grown to include handmade leather accessories, ceramics, homewares, illustrated goods and jewellery. Each piece is lovingly hand crafted here in our studio in West Cornwall.

The name Studio Lowen came from the word for joyful in Cornish, "Lowen". The simple idea behind the brand being that the studio is a happy place to make and create, while our products should bring happiness and joy through their functionality and aesthetic.

Inspired by the natural world around us, botanical and coastal themes run through our collections to create simple, timeless pieces that will be treasured either as keepsakes or as everyday functional pieces. We consider every product carefully, taking care to minimise waste by turning even the smallest pieces of leather into something new and beautiful.

The team now comprises of Lisa, her studio assistant Amie and Lisa's husband Sam (when he's not working full time as a building contractor). We've outgrown the garden studio and now have a new bigger studio up the road where we design, make and pack every order with care and joy.

Our wholesale collection includes just a small selection of what we do, but we're always open to conversations about commissions and collaborations about our other work too.

We hope you enjoy looking through our catalogue.

Love,
Lisa, Sam and Amie.

Earring Collections

Our love of minimising waste meant we kept hold of all our offcuts waiting for an idea of something to make with them. In the Summer of 2019 we launched our first earring collection, since then we've added to the range with lots of new colours and styles. Leather makes a great material for earrings as it's so lightweight and comfortable to wear. Our studs are gold plated and our hoops are 18K gold plated.
