

Tiebandz was founded in 2016 by Charlotte Coe and Karen Fraser in search of the perfect hair-tie. Unable to find hair-ties that suited all hair types, we set about creating our own.

With both practicality and style at the forefront, most important was that a hair-tie should never hurt the hair - but should feel soft and gentle while holding the thickest to the finest of hair types.

Tiebandz is the only adjustable hair-tie which gives the flexibility to fit all wrist sizes and can be worn as both a bracelet and anklet when not in the hair – ensuring you are never without a hair-tie.

Tiebandz is a community which reaches out to all and excludes no one. Each Tiebandz is created with the wearer in mind and are designed for diversity and longevity. Tiebandz are aimed at anyone who cares about their hair and loves a sense of fashion. They also make colourful and practical gifts.

Tiebandz is about empowerment and a profit percentage is donated to charities aimed at ending violence against women and children around the world.

Tiebandz are available in monotone and mixed colour ways with 3 bandz in a pack.
