S/S 2024 PAPER GOODS CATALOGUE

hello from us... the lil wabbit team

Georgi      Director of Happiness
Jai            Captain
Taika         Head Muse & Expert Sock Stealer

We make glorious paper goods from our West Sussex studio inspired by animals from across the world.

lil wabbit was launched (accidentally) in the first lockdown of 2020 when I inherited my grandmother's art supplies and began painting for the very first time. Since then, it has grown to be our family business with cards flying out to happy customers and stockist all over.

Every product we make features a hand painted design and is printed in the UK with quality at the forefront of our minds. We pay attention to the little details and feel that's what makes us special!

Our goal is to bring joy wherever we can, whether it be through our light-hearted illustrations, sustainability ethos or charity and community work.

In line with our love for animals and passion for wildlife, we always aim to use materials and techniques that are the most caring to our planet and all its inhabitants. If you are interested in finding out how and where our products are produced, please get in touch for more information.

Since lil wabbit's inception we have worked hard to create a business we can feel good about. That's why we work closely with charities and community projects to help create a better world!

Since 2021 we have supported the UK charity StreetVet by donating them 50% of profits on certain ranges and in 2024 we are launching our new scheme where we sponsor one Sussex Honey Bee for every card sold.

Unless stated otherwise all cards are 150mm x 150mm, 350gsm, made of mixed recycled materials, FSC accredited, with a kraft envelope included.

Meet Spy in 2021. Spy's life was saved by Streetvet.

Streetvet is a registered charity that offers free veterinary care to pets belonging to those experiencing homelessness in the UK. They provide all sorts of care, from major surgeries, to lump inspections and vaccinations, to loving cuddles and worm coats. In 2021, Spy was found to have a life-threatening veterinary hernia which was treated by a Streetvet team member at a local surgery, with the help of three veterinary nurses and a specialist soft tissue surgeon. It was because of Streetvet's amazing care that Spy was able to get back to full health and returned to his owner. They are now both on a working sheepdog and Spy is back doing the job he loves as a working sheepdog.

50% of profits from every sale of a lil wabbit x Streetvet card goes to helping animals just like Spy. All over to Meet Alfie. He's a regular at Streetvet.

Streetvet is a registered charity that offers free veterinary care to pets belonging to those experiencing homelessness in the UK. They provide all sorts of care, from major surgeries, to lump inspections and vaccinations, to loving cuddles and worm coats. In 2021, Alfie visited the Streetvet team as he appeared to have some discomfort when eating. The Cornwall team gave him a full clinical exam and discovered that Alfie had significant dental disease. They booked Alfie into a local vet practice for a dental, where he had 2 teeth extracted, the rest were descaled and polished. Thanks to Streetvet, dogs like Alfie can access vital medical care.

In 2021 we decided to partner with the incredible charity StreetVet to create a line of cards with a true purpose - to raise awareness and funds for the pets of people experiencing homelessness in the UK. Each card features a real animal who lives on the streets of the UK with their owner and receives care from one of the many StreetVet outreaches dotted across the UK. On the back of each card is a photo and the story of the animal featured.

Due to the popularity of the Christmas range and at the request of many of our stockists, we have designed an everyday collection of StreetVet cards. These blank cards continue to feature the animal illustrations along with a photo and story on the reverse of the card but are designed to be used for any occasion.

50% of the profit from every sale goes to StreetVet.
