

RE_CONSIDERED

A gold chain necklace with four square, multi-colored pendants is laid out on a piece of textured, light-colored paper. The pendants are made of a material that appears to be recycled or repurposed, showing various colors like pink, blue, and yellow. The chain is made of gold-colored links. The background is a piece of textured, light-colored paper with some darker spots and fibers visible.

TURNING WASTE INTO WONDER

Jewellery Look Book 2025

RE_CONSIDERED is a circular design house crafting sustainable objects from textile waste. We turn discarded materials into bold, beautiful, and functional products using Fabreco—our signature composite material made from upcycled fibres and bio-resin.

Each piece is handmade in the UK and designed to spark curiosity, conversation, and a deeper connection to what we own.

CHUNKY CHARM NECKLACE
