

HELLO

Another trade show, another catalogue.

This one contains three new ranges, some updates to some older ranges, and a brand new whacking great big collection of reasonably priced everyday cards.

As is the way with this fabulous industry, as soon as we had finished launching our last collection of cards, we immediately decided they were all awful and we had to design more without delay. So here they are, forget the old ones, they were a mistake, we are so much better at designing cards than we were 6 months ago, frankly it's embarrassing.

Actually, to be honest, some of them were pretty good, and if you still wanted them they can all be viewed and purchased through our website, so why not give that a shuffle through too.

Anyway, enjoy these while you can, as if all goes to plan we will be offering you another brochure, with a whole load of new cards in four months' time. Quick! Buy all these ones before we are bored of them too.

Thank you!
Love Tim, Annie, and the Objectables team.

JEN & ERIC

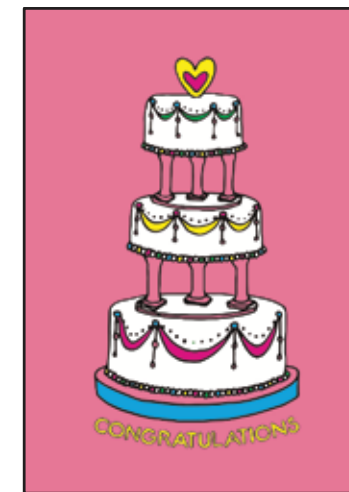

Running a shop we often overhear comments from our lovely customers, such as, "These cards are amazing", "It smells of weird cheese in here" and "Holy shit bombs, that's a lot of money for a folded piece of card". Well we want to do something about that, well, the last bit, we are cool with the other bits. Introducing our new range, Jen & Eric, a collection of around 90 fantastic cards at a slightly lower price point. Covering every occasion we could think of, these cards are still designed with our usual love, care and humour but are printed on a different card stock and at a smaller size than our regular cards. The cards will be sold in sixes at £0.80 per card, with an RRP of £1.95 - £2.50.
