MORGAN-WRIGHT.CO.UK

An Heirloom Christmas Collection returns as a gentle continuation of our festive story, shaped by sentiment and enduring tradition.

There are oversized bows, hand-etched glass baubles, and timeless stockings, some with small pockets for hidden treasures. Every piece is carefully hand-painted and hand crafted, made to be cherished rather than replaced.

Thoughtful and considered, these are objects to unwrap and return to, year after year. A celebration of familiarity, ritual, and home, to be enjoyed and discovered each season.

A festive holiday scene featuring a cardboard tube with a brass bell, fabric cracker bags, and a star ornament. The tube is lying on its side, with a brass bell attached to its end. The bell is partially unwrapped, revealing a small, round, gold-colored object. The tube is surrounded by greenery and a large, rustic wooden star. In the foreground, there are two fabric cracker bags: one with green and white stripes and another with a red and white plaid pattern. A small, clear plastic bag of "QUALITY SWEETS" is also visible. The background is dark and out of focus, with some greenery and a hint of a wooden surface.

NEW FOR THE SEASON

Refillable Fabric Crackers

Designed as an alternative to traditional paper crackers, each one comes complete with a cardboard tube, ready to be filled with small, personal gifts. Once opened, the fabric unwraps and can be used again, becoming a simple napkin at the table.

NEW FOR THE SEASON

Brass Match Box Sleeve

A brass match box sleeve, designed to bring a more considered detail to everyday rituals.

Finished in a warm, aged tone with a brass, they slip easily over a matchbox, elevating something simple into a decorative object.

The box remains in place when in use, allowing matches to be struck without removing the cover. It pairs naturally with candle lighting, sitting neatly on a mantel or shelf.
