

Temp Staff

Bond Associates¹ is a leading supplier of temporary exhibition, promotion and conference staff in the UK. We cover all major cities; with over 1500 professional² event staff in the UK to select from you can be assured that we can meet your needs, whatever these may be and whenever you need them in a cost-effective manner.

Exhibitors can hire through Bond Associates:

- Confident experienced sales people, capable of generating quality contacts;
- Promotional staff to elevate brand awareness and interest on or off the stand via leafleting or character costumes;
- Interpreters, translators, or bi/multi-lingual stand host/esses
- Impactful and arresting presenters to deliver multi-media presentations;
- Staff to run competitions, events, sampling, demonstrations and promotions on or off the stand;
- Hospitality and reception staff, waiters/waitresses, cooks, bartenders etc to support your sales team and keep the wheels turning;
- Specialist staff offering attractions to your stand including: therapeutic services such as reiki, reflexology, Indian head massage; character costume people; look-alikes; human statues; henna tattooists and others "attention grabbing" services;
- Manual staff for assisting with stand construction, portorage etc or simply staff to fill in at times when company staff levels are low.

All staff supplied by Bond Associates have only joined after a rigorous selection procedure viz interviewed, their track record in event work checked and found to be good, and have been psychometric tested and benchmarked to ensure they are in the top (1st) or second to top (2nd) quartiles.

You can request a quote either on-line through the Bond Associates website or contact Louise Clifford directly (email: louise@bondassociates.co.uk) . Alternatively an order form may have been included in the manual.
