Best learning technologies project – public & non-profit sector

The judging panel will score submissions according to how well they fulfil the specific bullet points outlined below .

Please use these bullet points as headings for each section to explain as clearly and concisely as you can how your submission meets the criteria. This does not preclude you from including other sections, however, you should consider the word count if you do.

There is a maximum word limit of 2000 words. Submissions exceeding this limit will not be judged.

Your entry may be disadvantaged if the judging panel is unable to see your submission in action. You also need to be prepared to provide evidence for claims you make about impact and effectiveness.

- The project has been aligned to a clearly identified performance need.
- The project has made appropriate use of technology from the options available.
- There is demonstrable evidence of a successful implementation strategy, including alignment with organisational goals, engagement with key stakeholders, marketing, support and evaluation.
- The overall learning strategy has been effective.
- The project has made an impact in terms of individual and organisational performance.
- The project displays innovation or originality that has been applied to positive effect.
- The project represents the best possible solution given the constraints and issues encountered.
