Occupational Therapy Show

25-26 NOV 2026
THE NEC BIRMINGHAM

DOWNLOADABLE

Conference Programme

Free to register - secure your place today!

www.theotshow.com/download

Occupational Therapy Show Occupational Therapy Show

occupationaltherapyshow

KEYNOTE THEATRE AND HEADLINE SPONSOR

AKW

EDUCATION PARTNER

Seating Matters

BAG SPONSOR

prism healthcare
Together we transform lives

INNOVATION THEATRE AND BADGE SPONSOR

closomat

LANYARD SPONSOR

Witherslack Group

SHOWGUIDE SPONSOR

astor bannerman
Washing | Hoisting | Changing
beyond routine

NETWORKING LOUNGE SPONSOR

VOLTA MOBILITY
AN ELAP & TRIPOD COMPANY

PARTNERS

Royal College of Occupational Therapists
OT TODAY MAGAZINE
The Occupational Therapy Service
CM MAGAZINE
ELIZABETH CASSON TRUST
BHTA British Healthcare Trades Association
CMSUK
Foundations

CPD CERTIFIED
The CPD Certification Service

KEYNOTE THEATRE

10:15 - 10:45 🔵

Small decisions, big consequences: the hidden risks in accessible design

Sarah Jane Rowland, OT and TOTS Project Lead, The Occupational Therapy Service

11:00 - 11:45 🔵

Disabled facilities grants: what everyone gets wrong

Paul Smith, Managing Director, Foundations

12:00 - 12:45 🟣

The neuroscience of self-regulation: brains, bodies and belonging - why occupational therapy matters

Dr Aine O'Dea, Owner and Director, Radiance Consulting Ltd

13:00 - 13:45 🔴

Alone in the room: how to survive, thrive and make some noise as an OT

Jill Martin Clinical Director, Purpose People Ltd

14:15 - 15:00 ⚫

Building a movement for change: better outcomes, closer to where people live

Karin Orman, Director of Practice, Innovation and Advocacy, Royal College of Occupational Therapists

15:15 - 16:00 🟢

Doing what matters, being kind, becoming sustainable: occupational therapy and belonging in a safer world

Ben Whittaker, Clinical Specialist Occupational Therapist, Sussex Partnership NHS Foundation Trust

THEATRE 1

09:45 - 10:15 🟡

Emotion regulation: the magic ingredients

Dr Christine Dunkley, Consultant DBT Trainer, British Isles DBT Training

10:30 - 11:15 🔵

More than therapy: leisure opportunities for children, built collaboratively with community partners

Shir Grunebaum, Paediatric Occupational Therapist, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust

Juliet Vine, Paediatric Occupational Therapist, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust

11:30 - 12:00 🔴🟠

Emerging opportunities for OTs in case management

Helen Valls-Russell, Director, Institute of Registered Case Managers

12:30 - 13:00 🔵

Assistive technology for upper limb impairment: screening, evidence and funding

Lauren Edwards, Occupational Therapist, Independent

Simon Fielden, Clinical Scientist and Technical Director, Rahana Life

13:15 - 14:00 🟡🟣

From dismissed to understood: enhancing occupational therapy for people with persistent physical symptoms

Hilary Lewis, Doctoral Clinical Academic Fellow, University of Leeds

14:15 - 14:45 🔵

Finding the right fit: supporting comfort, posture and participation through custom seating

Linda Keogh, Senior Occupational Therapist & Educational Consultant, Etac

15:00 - 15:45 ⚫

Occupational therapy as a catalyst for change: how occupational therapists drive participation and inclusion

Chair: Professor Anita Atwal, Associate Professor, York St John University

Beverly Knops, Specialist Occupational Therapist and Trustee, Vocational Rehabilitation Association (VRA)

Aimee Nuttall, Occupational Therapist, Include to Improve Programme Lead, Sport for Confidence

16:00 - 16:30 🔴

OT in a digital world: AI and technology on the front line

Chloe Bromhead, Senior Practitioner Occupational Therapist, Derby City Council

THEATRE 2

09:30 - 10:00 🔵

Keeping adaptations moving

Susan Clinton, Head of Case Management, Clarion Housing Group

10:15 - 10:45 🔵

More than just a wobble cushion: why Experts at Hand is our time to shine

Sadie Charlton, Specialist Occupational Therapist, NHS

11:00 - 11:45

How to implement Optimal Handed Care at scale using the LGA High Impact Change Model and Maturity Matrix

Deborah Harrison, Associate Consultant, Health Integration Partners and Moving and Handling Lead, The Occupational Therapy Service

Rehan Qureshi, Associate Director, Health Integration Partners

12:00 - 12:45 🟡🔵

Perinatal mental health: an occupational therapy perspective to parenting

Sarah Maris-Shaw, Occupational Therapist - Perinatal Specialist, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust

Kate Halsall, Consultant Occupational Therapist, Lancashire and South Cumbria NHS Foundation Trust

13:15 - 14:00

An evidence-based risk assessment tool to minimise risks when implementing Optimal Handed Care

Deborah Harrison, Associate Consultant, Health Integration Partners and Moving and Handling Lead, The Occupational Therapy Service

Jo Webb, Occupational Therapist, KW Therapy Ltd

14:15 - 14:45 🟣

Tai Chi and Qigong in neurorehabilitation

Alison Noakes, Occupational Therapist, The Occupational Therapy Service

Mark Peters, Lead Trainer and Coach, Midlands Tai Chi Rehabilitation

15:00 - 15:30

Hospital discharge: what good looks like

Joe Kelly, Strategic Director of Adult Social Care & Health, Tameside Metropolitan Borough

15:45 - 16:15 🔴

Think like a commissioner: how occupational therapists can position their services for commissioning success

Fiona Corless, Director, FL Collaborative Consulting

STREAMS

🔴 Career development, leadership and professional practice 🟡 Mental health 🔵 Children and young people ⚫ Policy 🟣 Neuro
🔵 Housing, equipment and adaptions 🟠 Case management 🟢 Sustainability

THEATRE 3

10:00 - 10:45

Life after discharge: coordinating complex neurological rehabilitation in the community

Joanna Fletcher-Smith, Case Management Service Lead, Harrison Associates and Director, CMSUK

11:00 - 11:30

Sustainable use of community equipment - OTs are key

Susanna Davies, Occupational Therapist, Researcher, University of Plymouth

11:45 - 12:15

Whose job is it anyway? Positioning, postural care and moving and handling: shared responsibility or specialist expertise?

Norma Findlay, Head of Clinical Operations, A1 Momentum

12:30 - 13:00

More than adaptations: creating homes that enable participation following catastrophic injury

Stephanie Fleet, Specialist Rehabilitation Occupational Therapist and Director, Think Therapy 1st and CMSUK

13:15 - 13:45

Virtual reality and nature pilot project in community stroke rehabilitation: functional gains and therapeutic benefit of nature connection

Lucy Austen, Clinical Lead Occupational Therapist, Sussex Community NHS Foundation Trust

14:00 - 14:30

The BREAD Approach®: a practical framework for supporting regulation in schools

Alison Neal, Consultant Occupational Therapist, Midlands Occupational Therapy

Laura Graham, Occupational Therapist, Laura Graham Occupational Therapy

14:45 - 15:30

The perfect storm – the challenges of housing and health in Northern Ireland

Shane Elliott, Head of Housing and Health, Department of Health/Northern Ireland Housing Executive

15:45 - 16:30

Why are we losing occupational therapists? Retention, burnout and career satisfaction in occupational therapy

Chair: Tongai Chichaya, Assistant Professor in Occupational Therapy, Coventry University

Dr Mandy Graham, Senior Lecturer & Programme Lead for BSc (Hons) Occupational Therapy, University of Salford

Dr Lisa Taylor, Employability and Learning Innovation Specialist

16:45 - 17:15

From placement to practice: embedding sustainability in occupational therapy through leadership, planetary health and green interventions

Annie Hill, Occupational Therapist Team Lead, Swansea Bay University Health Board

INNOVATION THEATRE

09:50 - 10:20

How Motability can support the work of occupational therapy

Sian Robinson, Micromobility Dealer Partnership Manager, Motability Operations

Ross Smith, Stakeholder Executive for Healthcare, Motability Operations

10:30 - 11:00

The chair, the skin and the person - an OT and TVN perspective on complex decision making

Jayne Brewer, Occupational Therapist, Accora

Sarah Thompson, Tissue Viability Specialist Nurse Advisor, Accora

11:10 - 11:40

Raising the bar – elevating care beyond passive transfer to maximised mobility opportunities in the care pathway

Carol Sinden, Director, Global Medical Affairs, Patient Handling and Hygiene, Arjo UK

Janet Copeland, UKI Product Manager, Patient Handling, Hygiene & Disinfection, Arjo UK

11:50 - 12:20

Beyond upper limb impairment: a guide to assistive technologies and service innovations from Rahana Life

Simon Fielden, Clinical Scientist and Technical Director, Rahana Life

Lauren Edwards, Occupational Therapist, Rahana Life

12:30 - 13:00

iOmniPro: working smarter, not harder. How an intuitive CRM system is transforming clinical practice

Victoria McDermott, Clinical Specialist OT and Managing Director, iOmniHealth Ltd

Holly Luxton, OT Clinical Lead and Operations Manager, Breakthrough Case Management Ltd

13:10 - 13:40

OT CPD positive talks podcast LIVE at The Occupational Therapy Show

Jade Wallace, Equipment Provision Specialist & Healthcare Business Consultant, Laybrook Care

Mike Cowan Jones, Arms Rehab Occupational Therapist, Laybrook Care

13:50 - 14:20

Managing complex and diverse manual handling situations

Katrina Stafford, Clinical Training Advisor, A1 Momentum

Kirsty O'Connor, Clinical Training Manager & Occupational Therapist, Seating Matters

14:30 - 15:00

Removing bathroom barriers to discharge: how rapidly deployable washing facilities can reduce delayed transfers of care

Stephen Fielding, Managing Director, Dignity Access Ltd

15:10 - 15:40

OT at a distance: can OT still provide quality and achieve positive outcomes?

Victoria Darcy, Clinical Operations Manager, Home Group

Julie Coram, Senior Occupational Therapist, Home Group

Clare Smith, Senior Clinical Practitioner, Home Group

Elise Johnson, Senior Occupational Therapist, Home Group

Millie Robinson, Senior Occupational Therapist, Home Group

15:50 - 16:20

Supporting every bite: paediatric occupational therapy for infants and children with complex feeding difficulties

Teresa Foley, Paediatric Occupational Therapist & Founder, The Feeding Therapist

SHOWCASE THEATRE

09:20 - 09:50

The benefits of standing for adults and paediatrics: an introduction to the new technology robooter XZ droid

Kaiquiang Li, Physiotherapist and Product Manager, Robooter

Tim Cox, Rehabilitation Director, Recare Ltd

10:00 - 10:30

Neurodivergence, trauma & the OT perspective

Birgit Fortmaier-James, Senior Occupational Therapist, Witherslack Group

10:40 - 11:10

Does the Disabled Facilities Grant meet our clients' needs in 2026?

Kate Sheehan, Occupational Therapist, KS Occupational Therapy Services

11:20 - 11:50

Are we solving today's problems or planning for tomorrow's? Preventative assessment and specifications in practice

Emma Taylor, Specialist Occupational Therapist, Independent

12:00 - 12:30

Beyond scores: seeing sensory patterns, creating possibilities for participation

Kathryn Smith, Consultant Occupational Therapist, Director, ASI Wise & The Sensory Project

12:40 - 13:10

Sensory integration in practice: impact, insights and reflections

Beth Smithson, Programme Facilitator, Sensory Integration Education

13:20 - 13:50

Why CO-OP, Why now?

Anne Corbett, Director, Learning2Practice

14:00 - 14:30

Becoming fatigue minded: rethinking how we notice and respond to fatigue

Charles Talbot, Specialist Neurological Occupational Therapist, New Leaf OT Ltd

14:40 - 15:10

Building Health into Homes – why housing is every occupational therapist's business

Lauren Walker, Professional Practice Manager, Royal College of Occupational Therapists

Dr Rachel Russell, Head of Regional Advice, Foundations

15:20 - 15:50

Restrictive equipment, consent and lawful occupational therapy practice

Kate Sheehan, Occupational Therapist, KS Occupational Therapy Services

16:00 - 16:30

3D home scanning in occupational therapy: A new approach to home modification assessments

Rohith McKim, Founder & CEO, OmaScan

Jen Bachynsky, Occupational Therapist & Founding Clinical Advisor, OmaScan

KEYNOTE THEATRE

09:30 - 10:15

Transforming clinical practice for people, services and planet

Jacqueline Gordon, Occupational Therapist and Clinical Sustainability Manager, Care without Carbon Sussex Community NHS Trust

10:30 - 11:15

What occupational therapists should know about women's hormones

Dr Louise Newson, GP and Menopause Specialist, Co-founder and Director, Newson Health Ltd

11:30 - 12:15

The art of participation: what eight years of The Sketcher Project has taught us about life after brain injury

Rhiannon Seaford-Jones, Occupational Therapist, Managing Director and Chair, CMSUK and Stokes Case Management

12:30 - 13:00

Accessible kitchens: designing for occupation, not diagnosis

Sarah Jane Rowland, OT and TOTS Project Lead, The Occupational Therapy Service

13:15 - 14:00

Be More Human - a call for change in how we respond to mental distress and ill health

Chair: Keir Harding, Clinical Lead, Beam Consultancy
Rt Hon Sir Norman Lamb, Former Health Minister for Care and Support (2012-2015)

14:15 - 15:00

Exploring a career in case management: navigating pathways, progression and professional support

Carole Chantler, Chair, Institute of Registered Case Managers
Rhiannon Seaford-Jones, Chair, CMSUK
Louise Chance, Chair, BABICM
Dr Julie Denning, Chair of Council, Vocational Rehabilitation Association

15:15 - 16:00

Leading the future of health and care: how occupational therapists can shape the next decade

Chair: Karin Orman, Director of Practice, Innovation and Advocacy, Royal College of Occupational Therapists
William Lee, Head of Policy and Compliance, British Healthcare Trades Association (BHTA)
Odeth Richardson, Head of Service for Occupational Therapy, Newcastle Hospitals
Samantha Shann, Vice Chair, World Rehabilitation Alliance
Professor Jane Melton, Vice Chair, Elizabeth Casson Trust

THEATRE 1

09:45 - 10:15

Beyond rehabilitation: the role of the OT case manager in long-term community rehabilitation

Rhiannon Seaford-Jones, Occupational Therapist, Managing Director and Chair, CMSUK and Stokes Case Management

10:30 - 11:15

Challenging disposable culture: a return to recycling equipment

Lucy Swift, Senior Occupational Therapist, Pain Management and Rehabiliation Team, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital Trust

11:30 - 12:00

Heather's journey: the importance of appropriate equipment and collaborative support in complex patient care

Heather Bertasius, Patient Moving & Handling Service Lead, Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust, Etac

12:30 - 13:00

From sensory foundations to participation: a just human lens through the participation web

Kathryn Smith, Consultant Occupational Therapist, Director, ASI Wise & The Sensory Project

13:15 - 14:00

The curious practitioner: learning, reflecting and growing throughout your career as a case manager or OT

Joanna Fletcher-Smith, Case Management Service Lead, Harrison Associates and Director, Institute of Registered Case Managers
Niccola Irwin, Director, Chair of the Quality Assurance Committee, Institute of Registered Case Managers
Carole Chantler, Chair, Institute of Registered Case Managers

14:15 - 14:45

A recipe for recovery: the development of evidence-based guidelines for occupational therapy in eating disorders

Abigail Cardwell, Lead Occupational Therapist, South West London & St George's Mental Health NHS Trust
Clare Margaret Steedman, Co-Founder & Clinical Director, Trauma & Eating Disorder Specialists (TEDS)

15:00 - 15:45

More than mobility: bringing intimacy back into rehabilitation

Sue Newsome, Psychosexual Therapist & Sexual Educator, Independent

THEATRE 2

09:45 - 10:15

Beyond labels: challenging stigma in dual diagnosis

Jessica Bhika, Senior Occupational Therapist, Priory Group Hospital

10:30 - 11:00

We don't need to know that: challenging embedded cultures and encouraging change

Holly Pulham, Wheelchair Therapist, Wheelchair and Special Seating Service, Bristol NHS Foundation Trust

11:15 - 11:45

Role boundaries: the occupational therapist vs the case manager

Niccola Irwin, Director, Chair of the Quality Assurance Committee, Institute of Registered Case Managers

12:00 - 12:45

The overlap advantage: OT–SLT co-working for stronger outcomes

Antonia Hardcastle, Lead Occupational Therapist and CPD Middle Leader, Dovecote School
Emma Taylor, Lead Speech and Language Therapist, Dovecote School

13:15 - 13:45

Mind the gap: overcoming shared responsibility for therapeutic lying in 24-hour postural care

Jenny Rolfe, Occupational Therapist, Posture Partnership Ltd
Jane Pratley, Clinical Lead, Postural Care & Seating Physiotherapist, Posture Partnership Ltd

14:00 - 14:30

Neuro connect cafes – tea, coffee and the chat

Julie Parker, Senior Associate Occupational Therapist, Stamp Jackson & Procter Limited

14:45 - 15:15

OT anywhere: you don't need permission to practise outdoors

Catherine Gray, CEO and Lead Therapist, Cup-O-T: Wellness and Therapy Services CIC

15:30 - 16:00

Seeing the invisible: how lifestyle monitoring and occupational therapy can transform independent living

Heilene Mission, Lead Clinician, Intelligent Lilli

STREAMS

Career development, leadership and professional practice · Mental health · Children and young people · Policy · Neuro · Housing, equipment and adaptions · Case management · Sustainability

THEATRE 3

10:00 - 10:45

From NHS to independent practice: what nobody tells you

Chair: Rachel Booth-Gardiner, Lead Occupational Therapist for Specialist Services, Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust (TEWV)
Matthew Box, Director, Occupational Therapist, Inclusion
Dr Kate Heward, Clinical Director, Rehabilitate Therapy Ltd
Sarah Meharg, Occupational Therapist and Director, MoodLifter

11:00 - 11:30

Supporting children and families beyond therapy: coordinating education, health and social care

Jackie Chappel, OT, Case Manager & Founder, Positive OT & Case Management Ltd and Director, CMSUK

11:45 - 12:15

Confidence starts here: empowering the next generation of occupational therapists in clinical seating

Martina Tierney, Occupational Therapist & Clinical Director, Seating Matters

12:30 - 13:00

Research to practice: new advancements in clinical assessment for motor vehicle transport

Helen Lindner, Chief Executive, MACA

13:15 - 13:45

Adaptations and equipment provision - evidencing the impact and benefits

Jill Pritchard, Housing Occupational Therapist and Business Change Consultant, Horizon Housing Association

14:15 - 15:00

Lost in translation: why good assessments build the wrong adaptation

Dr Rachel Russell, Head of Regional Advice, Foundations

15:15 - 16:00

Climbing the career scaffolding: careers options you've never thought of

Chair: Sarah Meharg, Occupational Therapist / Director, MoodLifter
Alex Fisher, Specialist Occupational Therapist, BSMHFT and Honorary Clinical Lecturer, University of Birmingham
Larissa Naccarato, Occupational Therapist, NeuroSparkly OT - Private Practice
Dr Gemma Styles, Service Improvement Business Partner, Improvement Hub, The Shrewsbury and Telford Hospital NHS Trust

INNOVATION THEATRE

10:00 - 10:30

Beyond the equipment: clinical reasoning for confident wash and dry toileting recommendations

Emma Taylor, Specialist Occupational Therapist, Independent

10:40 - 11:10

Beyond upper limb impairment: a guide to assistive technologies and service innovations from Rahana Life

Simon Fielden, Clinical Scientist and Technical Director, Rahana Life
Lauren Edwards, Occupational Therapist, Rahana Life

11:20 - 11:50

Raising the bar – elevating care beyond passive transfer to maximised mobility opportunities in the care pathway

Carol Sinden, Director, Global Medical Affairs, Patient Handling and Hygiene, Arjo UK
Janet Copeland, UKI Product Manager, Patient Handling, Hygiene & Disinfection, Arjo UK

12:00 - 12:30

#AnalysingTheOrdinary: from developing brains to rebuilding lives - executive function and the power of occupational therapy

Dr Aine O'Dea, Owner and Director, Radiance Consulting Ltd

12:40 - 13:10

From AMPS to QoP tools: practical assessments for contemporary occupational therapy practice

Patricia Terrar-Perez, Director and Clinical Specialist, Therapy Routes To Inclusion CIC (TRI Network)

13:20 - 13:50

How Motability can support the work of occupational therapy

Sian Robinson, Micromobility Dealer Partnership Manager, Motability Operations
Ross Smith, Stakeholder Executive for Healthcare, Motability Operations

14:00 - 14:30

Spatially aware AI scribes in home assessments

Rohith McKim, Founder and CEO, OmaScan
Jen Bachynsky, Occupational Therapist and Founding Clinical Advisor, OmaScan

14:40 - 15:10

The benefits of standing for adults and paediatrics: an introduction to the new technology robooter XZ droid

Kaiquiang Li, Physiotherapist and Product Manager, Robooter
Tim Cox, Rehabilitation Director, Recare Ltd

SHOWCASE THEATRE

10:10 - 10:40

Supporting healthy working lives: our role as occupational therapists

Karin Orman, Director of Practice, Innovation and Advocacy, Royal College Of Occupational Therapists

10:50 - 11:20

Does the Disabled Facilities Grant meet our clients' needs in 2026?

Kate Sheehan, Occupational Therapist, KS Occupational Therapy Services

11:30 - 12:00

Embodied practice: beyond the therapy room

Hathaway Davis, Occupational Therapist, Witherslack Group

12:10 - 12:40

Sensory integration in practice: impact, insights and reflections

Beth Smithson, Programme Facilitator, Sensory Integration Education

12:50 - 13:20

Beyond reminders: using connected technology to support independence in older adults with cognitive decline

Valérie Larochelle, CEO and Co-Founder, Eugeria and Idem

13:30 - 14:00

Restrictive equipment, consent and lawful occupational therapy practice

Kate Sheehan, Occupational Therapist, KS Occupational Therapy Services

14:10 - 14:40

Mindfulness-Informed Fatigue Management (MIFM) - from awareness to occupational change

Charles Talbot, Specialist Neurological Occupational Therapist, New Leaf OT Ltd

ABACUS SPECIALIST BATHROOM SOLUTIONS
STAND D20

12:15 - 12:45

FUNdamental the importance of bathing as a play and leisure occupation

Dr Ruth Parker, Occupational Therapist, Abacus Specialist Bathroom Solutions

14:30 - 15:00

Designing a shower room: when standards meet real life

Kate Sheehan, Occupational Therapist, KS Occupational Therapy Services

ETAC
STAND G40

11:00 - 11:15

Hygiene without hazards: clinical approaches and solutions for safer bathroom routines

Tove Filipsson, Physiotherapist and AB Clinical Education Manager, Etac

12:00 - 12:15

Right sheet, right patient: master the selection criteria for the Immedia 4WayGlide System

Anette Repenning Raun, International Product Manager – Transfer, Etac

13:00 - 13:15

Hygiene without hazards: clinical approaches and solutions for safer bathroom routines

Tove Filipsson, Physiotherapist and AB Clinical Education Manager, Etac

14:00 - 14:15

Right sheet, right patient: master the selection criteria for the Immedia 4WayGlide System

Annette Repenning Raun, International Product Manager – Transfer, Etac

THE OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY SERVICE
STAND D22

12:00 - 12:15

The history of hoisting fatalities and the MHRA alert 2026: what lessons can we learn?

Deborah Harrison, Associate Consultant, Health Integration Partners UK

HKD SOLUTIONS
STAND G60

10:20 - 10:35

Restrictive practice: are we assessing risk – or avoiding it?

Heather Ling, Managing Director, HKD Solutions Ltd

14:40 - 14:55

Restrictive practice: are we assessing risk – or avoiding it?

Heather Ling, Managing Director, HKD Solutions Ltd

NRS UK LTD
STAND H55

10:00 - 10:30

Be sure about pressure care

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

11:00 - 11:30

Bed rail safety: Guidance into practice

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

14:00 - 14:30

Be sure about pressure care

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

15:00 - 15:30

Bed rail safety: Guidance into practice

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

ABACUS SPECIALIST BATHROOM SOLUTIONS
STAND D20

12:00 - 12:30

Designing a shower room: when standards meet real life

Kate Sheehan, Occupational Therapist, KS Occupational Therapy Services

14:15 - 14:45

FUNdamental the importance of bathing as a play and leisure occupation

Ruth Parker, Occupational Therapist, Abacus Specialist Bathroom Solutions

ETAC
STAND G40

11:00 - 11:15

Right sheet, right patient: master the selection criteria for the Immedia 4WayGlide System

Anette Repenning Raun, International Product Manager – Transfer, Etac

12:00 - 12:15

Hygiene without hazards: clinical approaches and solutions for safer bathroom routines

Tove Filipsson, Physiotherapist and AB Clinical Education Manager, Etac

13:00 - 13:15

Right sheet, right patient: master the selection criteria for the Immedia 4WayGlide System

Anette Repenning Raun, International Product Manager – Transfer, Etac

14:00 - 14:15

Hygiene without hazards: clinical approaches and solutions for safer bathroom routines

Tove Filipsson, Physiotherapist and AB Clinical Education Manager, Etac

THE OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY SERVICE
STAND D22

13:15 - 13:30

The history of hoisting fatalities and the MHRA alert 2026: what lessons can we learn?

Deborah Harrison, Associate Consultant, Health Integration Partners UK

HKD SOLUTIONS
STAND G60

10:20 - 10:35

Restrictive practice: are we assessing risk – or avoiding it?

Heather Ling, Managing Director, HKD Solutions Ltd

14:40 - 14:55

Restrictive practice: are we assessing risk – or avoiding it?

Heather Ling, Managing Director, HKD Solutions Ltd

NRS UK LTD
STAND H55

10:00 - 10:30

Be sure about pressure care

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

11:00 - 11:30

Bed rail safety: Guidance into practice

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

14:00 - 14:30

Be sure about pressure care

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health

15:00 - 15:30

Bed rail safety: Guidance into practice

Sue Johnson, Chief Nurse and Tissue Viability Advisor, Caversham Health