

Customers decide who to do business with based on a business's online reputation.

If you're really good at something, you shouldn't also have to be great at marketing it to get customers. We're dedicated to helping you build your reputation and grow your business. Specifically, we help businesses get more reviews, referrals and sales by automating their reputation marketing.

Attract more customers by earning 4x more reviews for your business

Improve search engine rankings and website traffic with more reviews and ratings from a dozen different review sites including Facebook, Google, and TripAdvisor.

Save time with automated SMS and email campaigns engaging your customers with reviews and customer recommendations.

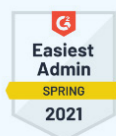

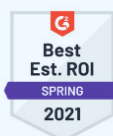

Turn your existing customers into vocal advocates that introduce you to your next customer through our Customer Recommendation tool.

By the end of Q4, NiceJob will be fully integrated into Paystone's gift and loyalty platform (formerly DataCandy). NiceJob will drive more reviews every time any of your customers accumulate or redeem any gift and loyalty.
