ALLIED MARITIME COMMAND

TRANSFORMING ISR CAPABILITIES IN SUPPORT OF NATO MARITIME SECURITY

CDR T. YALE USN
Section Head Exercises Maritime Air NATO

COM MARAIR NATO

NATO yesterday → NATO today

Defence & Deterrence

Threats to the Alliance

COM MARAIR NATO

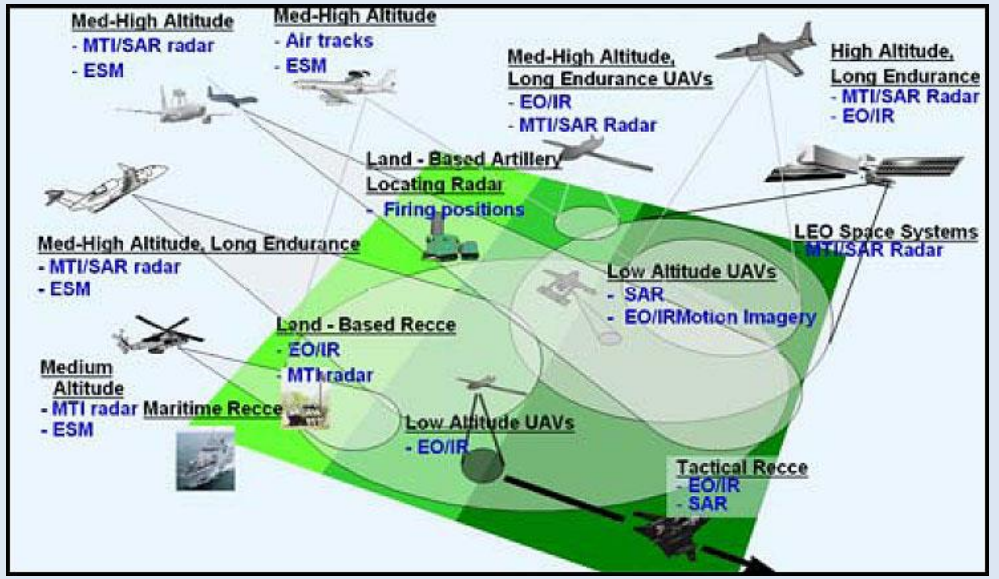
Main Responsibilities

- Command Maritime Air Assets under NATO OPCON
- Coordinate all Maritime Air activities related to NATO within the Maritime Domain
- Plan, direct and convey MARCOM's Maritime (Air) Campaign Plan into AIRCOM's ATO/ACO
- Coordinate Maritime Strike activities in close coordination with the JFCs, SFN, AIRCOM and the nations
- Coordinate and de-conflict Maritime Air assets operating under national C2 throughout the NATO AOR
- Coordinate and facilitate the Domain "SPACE" in MARCOM in close cooperation with AIRCOM

NATO Sharing information

- NATO Intel Network
- Multiple Nations and Sources
- NATO centralised vs national decentralised

- Multi Domain
- Joint Effects



DYNAMIC MESSENGER 23

MARCOM

Criteria for Industry participation - Two Categories of participation:

- Directly contracted industry personnel supporting a national MUS development programme.
- Industry sponsored to attend by a participating nation.

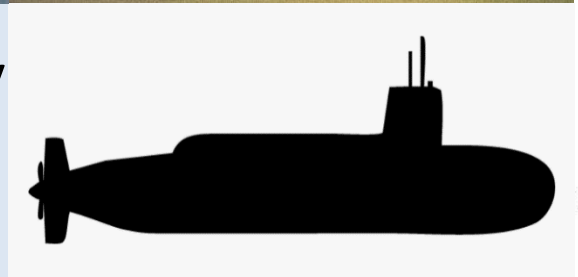
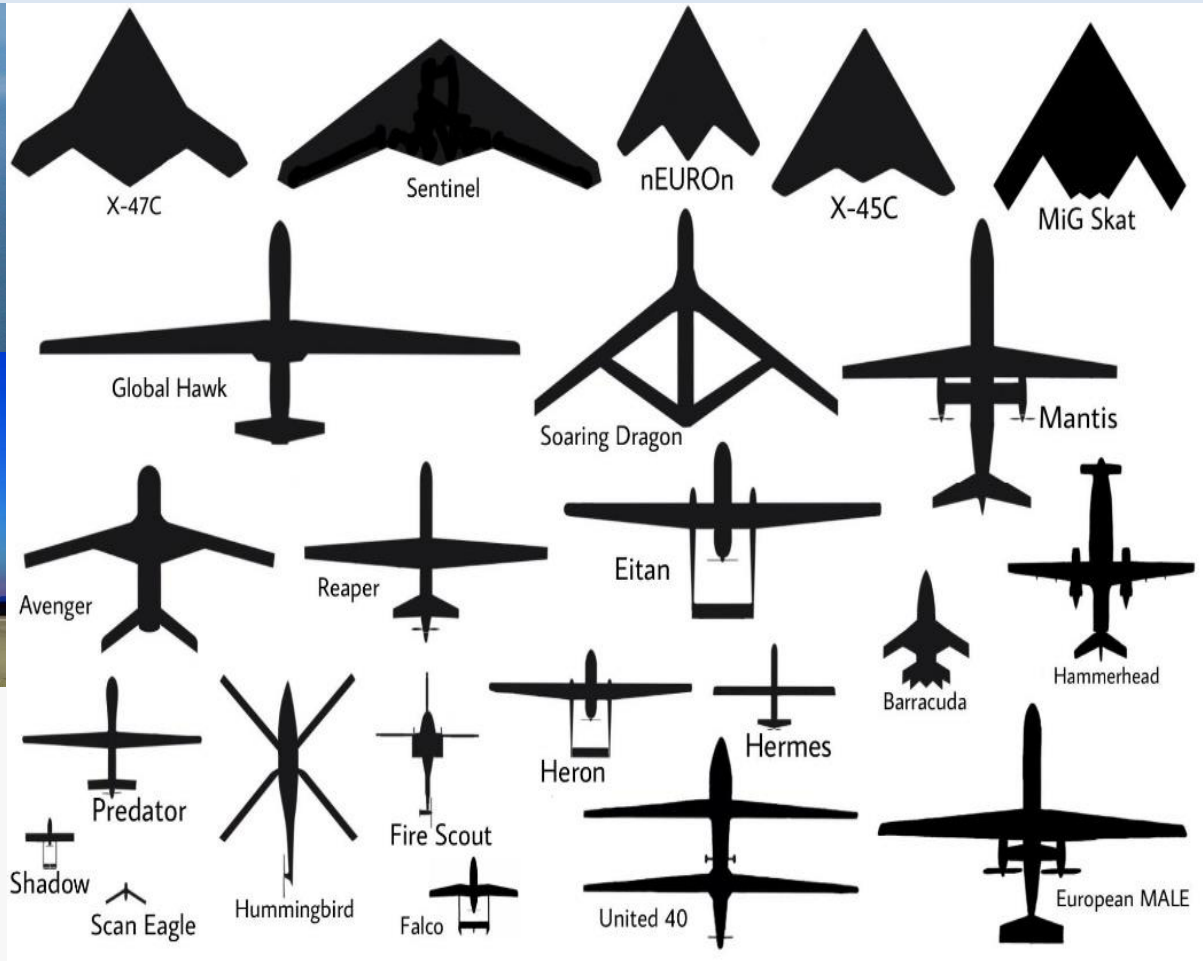
Offerings up to now:

NATO Maritime Air Contributors

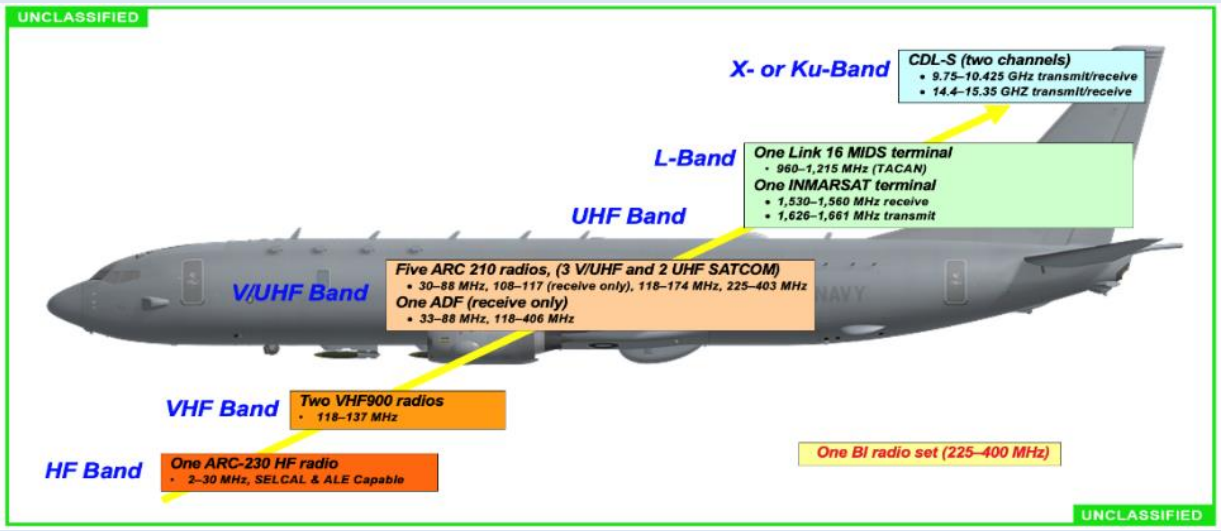




- Interoperability
- Battlespace
- Targeting

MARITIME AIR way ahead

- JISR - PED
- Systems integration



- STANAGS
- “Plug and play”