Del Monte is here to work hand in hand with you to define your needs, design the perfect menu and implement it.

Del Monte started over 125 years ago with the obsession of extracting the best of the plant. A passion for quality that never faded. In the MENA region, Del Monte is growing fruits and vegetables in many countries, and opened facilities to provide healthy added value options.

The launch of the catering activity is a natural evolution for Del Monte as we already master each step of the process from growing our own fruits and vegetables, to producing innovative added value products and distributing them.
