

Unlock More Value Beyond the Show Floor

Sponsors and exhibitors are already activating off-site—let's connect it back to your event strategy.

The Challenge

The show floor is the core of your event experience, but valuable engagement is also happening beyond it through sponsor and exhibitor activations that often operate independently from the broader event strategy.

The Opportunity

Sponsors frequently activate in conjunction with events creating opportunities to turn standalone experiences into coordinated extensions of the event program.

Our Services

- Conferences & Conventions
- Incentive Programs
- Meetings & Seminars
- Award Ceremonies
- Recognition Programs

With us as your partner, you can:

- Extend your show across the destination. Create curated, citywide experiences that complement the show floor and give sponsors more opportunities to engage attendees throughout the program.
- Differentiate your show experience. Deliver elevated, experience-led activations that capture attention and enhance your overall offering.
- Strengthen revenue and relationships. Support high-value moments that contribute to long-term sponsor and exhibitor partnerships.

Let's Extend the Experience with Off-site Activation Opportunities

Branded Venue Buyout

Create fully branded, immersive experiences by taking over standout venues—designed for scale, visibility, and seamless integration with your event.

VIP Dinner

Host exclusive dinners that create space for deeper conversations with key clients, partners, and top attendees. Ideal for high-value relationship building.

Block Party

Activate the destination with high-energy experiences that transform the host city into a dynamic, shared environment for attendees. Built to drive excitement and participation.
