Re: NOC endorsement of the Libya Energy & Economic Summit, Tripoli, January 2025

The National Oil Corporation of Libya (NOC) is pleased to announce its support and endorsement for the third edition of the Libya Energy & Economic Summit, on 18-19 January 2025 in Tripoli.

The Libya Energy & Economic Summit is the country's official event for the promotion of energy opportunities and for creating impactful partnerships and follows highly impactful and successful editions in 2021 and 2024. The Libya Energy & Economic Summit is an international high-level summit, held here in Libya, with the goal of driving investment into the energy sector and exposing opportunities in our energy sector to global and Libyan partners.

The NOC invites its partners worldwide and in Libya to participate in important discussions at the summit, and in bilateral meetings. We invite you to support this important initiative alongside the NOC.

On Behalf of the National Oil Corporation
