There's nothing like meeting customers face-to-face

For the past 25+ years, the east coast edition of Techno Security & Digital Forensics Conference has ushered in more innovations, conversations, and deals than any other event.

After a standout return to San Diego in 2025, Techno Security & Digital Forensics Conference returns to the Town and Country Resort - the venue that proved to be the perfect home for Techno West. With a strong attendance, energized networking, and overwhelmingly positive feedback from exhibitors and attendees alike, last year's event was a true home run. We are excited to continue growing the show and bringing the DFIR, investigate, and eDiscovery communities together at the fall conference.

Techno is where you can meaningfully connect with motivated buyers and industry experts in a few short days. The event attracts new buyers every year – and you'll walk away with new connections, fresh insights, and lucrative business deals.

You'll explore deeper connections and showcase your innovations to an intelligent group of prospective buyers.

Get ready to:

- Expand Your Network & Fill Your Pipeline: Meet new prospects and potential partners eager for groundbreaking solutions.

Attending the 2025 Techno Security & Digital Forensics Conference in San Diego was an incredible professional experience. The event brought together an exceptional community of investigators, analysts and cybersecurity professionals. Each committed to advancing the science of digital forensics and protecting victims through innovation and collaboration. The exchange of ideas, tools, and techniques reminded me how essential teamwork and humility are when working cases that carry such emotional weight. I left the conference re-energized, inspired, and even more determined to keep learning and contributing to this field.
