

Specialist, Integrated, Electronic Fire and Security Systems Across the UK

Fully Accredited

Achilles UVBD Audited (100% score 5 years in a row)

NSI Gold

ISO 14001, 45001 & 27001

BAFE Registered

Cyber Essentials Plus

Experienced Engineers

Our engineers undertake regular manufacturer training and are certified to a high standard. With experience working in challenging environments including Water Treatment Facilities and Substations, with some of them authorised to work and supervise others in a live substation environment

Lifelong Partnerships

We work closely with our customers to create a partnership that lasts a life time, demonstrated by the large number of customers that have been with us for many years

Bespoke Designs

Our own in house design team create bespoke designs specific to our customer needs, creating a plan that is customised to take care of your Security and Fire challenges

Expert Advisors

We utilise the best industry knowledge by harnessing the expertise of industry leaders through strategic partnerships with market leading suppliers and the experience and know how of our expert colleagues who have been in the industry for decades