THE 2025 SHOW IS HERE...

New ideas, new kit, and immersive experiences - we're thrilled to welcome you to our first ever show in London!

Get ready to explore, learn, and be inspired. This year, we're bringing together over 250 brands from all over the world, including Canon, Nikon, Sony, Fujifilm, Sigma, Godox, Pentax, FJ Westcott and many more. You'll be able to get hands-on with everything from state-of-the-art cameras, lenses, tripods and bags, to studio backdrops, props and lighting, business services and editing software. With exclusive show deals to be had (visit retailers Wex, LCE and CameraWorld for fantastic discounts and trade-in offers), you may not be able to resist a purchase or two.

And that's just the start!

With over 350 free-to-attend sessions across multiple stages, you'll have the chance to learn tips, tricks and techniques across photography, video and content creation. Our headline speakers include Lindsay Adler, Scott Kelby, David duChemin, Kelly Brown, Andy Gotts, Libby Penman and we have many more creatives looking forward to sharing their skills and unique approaches. Whether you're looking to master portrait photography, capture breathtaking landscapes, finesse your filmmaking, or create compelling social media content, there's something for everyone.

Beyond the talks and exhibitors, there's plenty more to discover. Step into our interactive Creator Playground and have fun creating with friends and family; test your skills at our shoot sets, or join one of our photo walks to discover London from a different angle. Our galleries include exhibitions from the LCE Photographer of the Year Awards, a series of 1948 London Olympics photos, developed by Disabled Photographers' Society, FELT 'I AM HERE'; the winners and runners-up of The Week Junior Science+Nature Scavenger Hunt Photo Contest, a selection of the Sony World Photography Awards images; and a tribute to the talented and inspiring teenage photographer, Liz Hatton.

Last but certainly not least, look out for demos hosted on exhibitor stands, and the Digital Camera World Lounge, where you can get a drink and have a chat with the editors.

Welcome again, enjoy the show!

The LAB series, named after the photographic laboratory, represents the pinnacle of Viltrox's optical engineering prowess, marking a significant step forward in the company's commitment to producing high-end photographic optics. The 135mm lens showcases Viltrox's advanced optical engineering, featuring a complex lens formula that includes specialized glass elements to minimize aberrations and deliver exceptional image quality.

The 135mm lens features a customizable LCD screen that provides real-time lens data, allowing photographers and videographers to fine-tune their settings with precision. Additionally, the lens is equipped with 2 customizable buttons, 3 click levers, 1 focus ring and 1 multifunctional ring, enabling users to tailor the lens to their specific workflow.

AF 135mm F1.8 LAB FE Lens

Robust and Reliable Design

Built with dust and moisture resistance, a water- and smudge-proof front lens coating and high-strength magnesium-aluminum alloy structure for reliable performance in tough conditions.

More to Expect

Viltrox is thrilled to unveil the new AF 35mm F1.2 LAB FE lens, set to be showcased at the London Photography and Video Show in March, with its official global launch in April.
