

SAFE AND SECURE

During event set-up and breakdown

Introduction

To ensure a warm welcome for all our guests, everyone has to be able to work in an environment that is safe and sound. That is why safety and security are such a high priority at RAI Amsterdam. Dutch law stipulates that the halls at RAI Amsterdam are to be regarded as a building site during event set-up and breakdown periods. For that reason, RAI has drawn up a number of safety rules, which must be observed by everyone.

Locations

- All (temporary) halls.
- Ballroom.
- Outside area.
- Other locations where booths are built.

Access

During set-up and breakdown periods RAI Amsterdam is only accessible with a valid set-up and breakdown badge. You can register for one online.

Means of personal protection (PBMs)

During the set-up and breakdown periods:

- Safety footwear must be worn at all times.
Purchase price: € 30,60
(including free helmet).
Rental price: € 5,- per day
- Safety helmets must be worn in the halls whenever the red flashing light is on.
Purchase price: € 10,30.

These forms of personal protection are no longer required when furnishing the stand.
