Allrent AV & ICT Solutions

Allrent IT & AV Solutions is a leading supplier of IT and AV equipment for events, congresses and trade-shows. Although our primary market is the European market, we supply material as well as in some cases full event support as far afield as Nairobi, Dubai, Johannesburg and Montreal. With warehouses and offices in The Netherlands, Belgium, Paris and several German cities we are able to supply most large event venues in Europe. Besides a diverse and dynamic team we also have our own in-house logistics and planning department enabling us to offer competitive all-in prices across our entire range of products.

Allrent IT & AV Solutions have supplied the IBC back-office equipment for over 25 years and are proud to be an IBC Verified Supplier for the third consecutive year.

30 years of hand-on experience, our up-to-date range of modern IT and AV equipment and our dynamic work method are the driving force behind our company.

Lasso Event & Expo Solutions

A reliable partner, A close-knit team, over 20 years of experience, 100% dedication, and a 1000m2 workshop: that's Lasso event & expo solutions. We design and build projects that leave a lasting impression—projects that are memorable and linger in your mind. Exhibition stands that stand out among others and events that spark curiosity, giving depth to the narrative the client wants to convey. From a backdrop to the complete setup of an event, from a standard booth to a two-story exhibition stand, from a basic concept to an entire trade show—we do it all; no request is too extravagant for us.

Listening, observing, and brainstorming contribute to the creation of the most beautiful projects and make the impossible possible. With our extensive experience in the trade show and event industry, we can creatively and intelligently solve most challenges for everyone involved.

There is still much to gain in terms of sustainability in our industry. Lasso is happy to set a good example. We work with recycled materials, minimize waste where possible, and increasingly develop modular constructions designed for reuse, either as a whole or in parts. This allows you as a customer to use the same materials for multiple events—better for the environment and your wallet!

Products/Services:

- Stand design and build
- Specialising in space only, double decker, balcony suites and meeting rooms
- Reuseable systems
- Modular design
