Allrent AV & ICT Solutions

Allrent IT & AV Solutions is a leading supplier of IT and AV equipment for events, congresses and trade-shows. Although our primary market is the European market, we supply material as well as in some cases full event support as far afield as Nairobi, Dubai, Johannesburg and Montreal. With warehouses and offices in The Netherlands, Belgium, Paris and several German cities we are able to supply most large event venues in Europe. Besides a diverse and dynamic team we also have our own in-house logistics and planning department enabling us to offer competitive all-in prices across our entire range of products.

Allrent IT & AV Solutions have supplied the IBC organization for over 25 years and are proud to be an IBC Verified Supplier for the 5th consecutive year.

30 years of hand-on experience, our up-to-date range of modern IT and AV equipment and our dynamic work method are the driving force behind our company.

Products/Services: AV & ICT Solutions/Rentals

We offer a turn-key solution be it a single LED screen on a floor stand up to large LED walls. We will assist exhibitors where possible to ensure that they receive the correct equipment to showcase their product or services on their stand as well as technical support during the duration of the show.

Lasso Event & Expo Solutions

A reliable partner, A close-knit team, over 20 years of experience, 100% dedication, and a 1000m2 workshop: that's Lasso event & expo solutions. We design and build projects that leave a lasting impression—projects that stay with you and continue to resonate in your mind. Exhibition stands that stand out from the rest and events that spark curiosity, adding an extra layer of depth to the client's story.

We build our stands entirely according to your wishes and budget, from simple and effective to extravagant. At Lasso, we go beyond just designing and building. We listen closely and collaborate on all possible solutions, such as a multi-year plan. If you encounter an issue or a problem, we'll be there as quickly as possible to solve it. We stick to your schedule and deliver on the agreed time. You can rely on Lasso as your trusted partner in stand and event construction.

There is still much progress to be made regarding sustainability in our industry, and Lasso is eager to set a good example. We work with recycled materials, minimize waste wherever possible, and are increasingly developing modular constructions that can be reused—either in their entirety or in parts. This way, you as the customer can reuse the same materials for multiple events—better for the environment and your budget!

Maxim

Maxim Communications Ltd are a full-service exhibition stand design and build agency with extensive experience building at IBC at the RAI, confirmed once again as a IBC2025 verified supplier. We can provide full support on all aspects of exhibiting including project managers at the RAI when IBC is open.

Maxim have been building stands and arranging live events for companies worldwide for over 30 years. We built 11 stands at IBC2024 ranging from 3m x 3m to over 150m² (including a stand award winner). No project too big or too small, we will give you the same high level of attention and service throughout.

Maxim offer a free consultation to discuss your exhibition requirements, we then tailor a design to meet your company needs with costs for Maxim to build it. We also have a new off the shelf solution for stands from 12m² to 18m², designed to make impactful smaller stands more affordable. Availability is limited though so please ask for details today.

For larger more complex stands we definitely have scope for IBC2025 and look forward to receiving your brief.
