- FREEMAN STUDY ON DELTA VARIANT

As the Delta Variant causes uncertainty around returning to normal activities, new primary research and predictive modeling shows that attending large in-person business events are safer than many daily activities and that hosting the events does not increase local COVID-19 case rates. Read this Freeman study to find out more.

- MOBILE APP – LIVE!

The InfoComm 2021 mobile app is now live! Download the app to easily access your plans and the show floor map.

- FREE EXHIBITOR T-SHIRTS

As a special "thank you" for your commitment to being All-In for InfoComm 2021, we'd like to give you a limited-edition InfoComm 2021 t-shirt.

These shirts are not available for purchase this year, so this is your only opportunity to grab a piece of swag that commemorates InfoComm 2021.

Please complete our shirt size form by September 10.
