JUNE 11-13, 2025 • ORLANDO, FL

The Official Newspaper of InfoComm 2025

PRODUCED FOR AVIXA BY THE PUBLISHER OF SYSTEMS CONTRACTOR NEWS, SOUND & VIDEO CONTRACTOR, AV TECHNOLOGY, MIX, RESIDENTIAL SYSTEMS AND TV TECH

Dear InfoComm Exhibitor,

InfoComm 2025, to be held in Orlando, FL from June 11-13, 2025, is coming up quickly. Again this year, Systems Contractor News will be producing a digital-only VIP Preview Edition and three on-site Daily editions with from-the-floor coverage of company and product news. The InfoComm Daily can be the primary means to publicize your new products at InfoComm, because it will be the primary source of product information for every show attendee.

Daily in Orlando, FL*

GUIDE FOR DAILY COVERAGE

Product press releases should be limited to 200 words maximum. Do not send a list of specs in lieu of a press release.

VIP coverage policy remains unchanged: one release per exhibitor/per brand.

For the show issues, maximum number of press releases per issue: two per exhibitor/per brand per day. Please prioritize these by day and order of importance (Day 1/Priority 1, Day 1/Priority 2, etc.). And remember, not everyone can be in Day 1!

Please note the proper image specs for print publication: at least 300 DPI; at least three inches wide and deep, jpg or tiff preferred.

HOT PRODUCTS

Hot Products is in essence our Editors' Choice of the 50 most innovation or new products at InfoComm. Exhibitors are allowed to submit two products to be considered for inclusion in Hot Products. Accompanying text should be no more than 40-50 words. There is no flexibility with regards to this word-count limit.

Hot Products entries must be real products, not prototypes, introduced following last year's InfoComm Expo; products must be available for order at the Expo; all Hot Products entries must be accompanied by a publishable image (see specs above).

Please send all materials by April 21 (VIP) or April 28 (At-Show) to:
