JOURNALISTS & PR AGENCY

Our Communications Partner, Madano, is a specialist energy and net zero agency and is available to support you if you have any news or announcements to promote or are launching a new product or initiative at the event. They will be engaging with journalists ahead of the event and coordinating media interviews and our press room. Please contact InnovationZero@Madano.com by 31 March to discuss how our PR team can support you and so can consider including your information as part of our event amplification. This can include:

- Spokesperson quote in our Innovation Zero World press releases distributed to UK national and trade media
- Inclusion of your press release in our event press packs, which will be shared with media attendees in advance
- Depending on the announcement, it could be used for media interviews with select journalists at the event
