Seamless sales to the highest-value markets

What is Enchar?

Enchar is a biochar broker focussing on large, industrial off-takers. We identify the most suitable markets and buyers for your biochar.

Sit back and relax. We do the matching.

What does Enchar provide?

- Identification and orchestration of purchase requests for your biochar.
- Support with biochar transport and CO₂-certification.
- A platform for a streamlined, easy & transparent biochar sales process.
- Consultancy on activities in order to maximise the value of your biochar.

Which pain points are we addressing?

- Biochar and its benefits are unknown to most biochar buyers.
- The benefits and economics of biochar application largely depend on the biochar-to-application fit.
- Biochar sales takes a long time and can be burdensome for most biochar producers.

Why Enchar?

- No risk – We work commission-based.
- You stay in control – No sale without your confirmation.
- Large off-takers – We work with big corporations to make your sales worthwhile.

How does it work?

- 1 You register your business.
- 2 You get listed in our database.
- 3 We find you suitable offtakers for your biochar.
- 4 You realise the sell.
