

Creating more than a hybrid workspace with AV

Julie Crawford | Global Marketing for Technology Partnerships
Shure Incorporated

The hybrid work experience needs to be more than just a workspace. It needs to be a community.

The AV solutions needed to build a successful community at work are flexible, reliable, inclusive, and instill confidence.

3 Goals for Every Hybrid Meeting Participant

Efficient and Reliable Collaboration

How do we use these goals to create a strong workplace community?

Creating a community with great AV

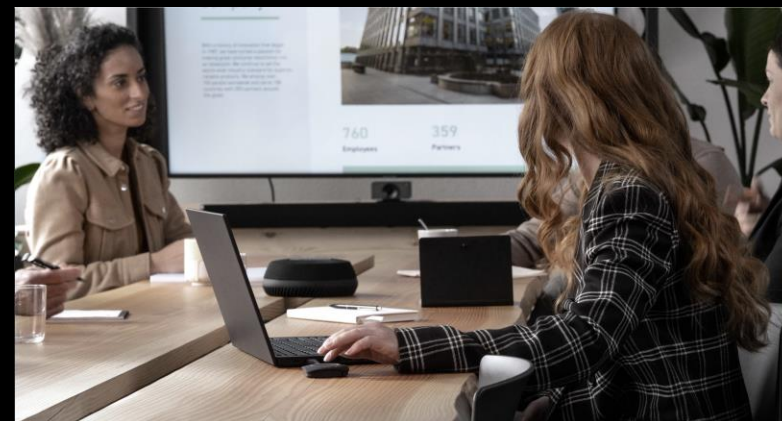

Provide collaboration opportunities that are easy to use with clear audio and video

Creating a community with great AV

Choose reliable technology that supports many different styles of work
