

How to crack the 48-hour performance review

How Remote Perform helped 1,800 team members complete reviews - faster, fairer, and with real outcomes

DAY 1

From zero to review-ready, in minutes

-  Build a culture of continuous feedback. Take notes of achievements and key learnings in Remote
-  Set company-wide expectations that performance reviews will be completed in 48 hours: no extensions!
-  Send notifications company-wide, letting them know it's time to complete their review
-  Leverage built-in AI to draft reflections, using the feedback, notes and achievements

DAY 2

Same-day calibration with built-in clarity

-  Remote Perform's smart dashboard highlights gaps
-  Calibration meetings take place for each department to agree final results
-  Data-driven promotion and merit reviews, same day
-  Review packets are auto-generated
-  Managers hold review conversations with their direct reports, with full clarity and context
