

Pielsa Showcases its Latest Upholstery Collections at Clerkenwell Design Week

Pielsa, a leading Spanish textile manufacturer, is excited to announce its debut at this year's Clerkenwell Design Week in London, taking place from May 20 to 22. The company will present its latest upholstery collections, including Jacquard fabrics for In&Outdoor applications. Since 1976, Pielsa has been proudly manufacturing 100% of its textiles in Spain, with all processes—from yarn dyeing to weaving and final finishes—taking place in its own facilities.

This marks the first time Pielsa will be presenting its collections at Clerkenwell Design Week, and the company looks forward to showcasing its high-quality textiles to the international design community. Visitors to stand CH13 will have the opportunity to explore Pielsa's renowned Jacquard fabrics, as well as custom-made products tailored to the unique needs of clients and the market.

Pielsa's long-standing commitment to quality, innovation, and sustainability has always been at the heart of its work. The company invites visitors to experience first-hand how its textiles are shaping the future of the industry.

Pielsa's dedication to excellence has earned it a strong reputation in the textile industry, and the company continues to lead by example with its sustainable practices and cutting-edge textile solutions.

For more information, please visit www.pielsa.es.

About Pielsa

Pielsa is a textile company based in Valencia, Spain, with over four decades of experience in the manufacturing of high-quality Jacquard fabrics. The company has built a strong reputation for producing innovative textiles for various applications, including In&Outdoor solutions. Pielsa is committed to sustainability and excellence, offering both its own collections and tailor-made products for a diverse range of clients worldwide.