

AcquarioDue is a renowned Italian ceramic workshop, known for its prestigious partnerships in the ceramics, fashion, and interior design industries.

At AcquarioDue, we are deeply passionate about meticulously crafting collections that are firmly grounded in the authentic traditions of Venetian artisans.

Each piece we create pays homage to Italian craftsmanship, blending history and innovation seamlessly.

We take pride in offering unique, iconic, exclusive, and customizable products that embody the essence of Italian artisanry. Our creations aren't just objects; they're sensory experiences that evoke emotions, tell stories, and transform spaces into timeless havens of beauty.

AcquarioDue stands for excellence, where tradition meets artistry, and every detail is crafted to captivate and inspire those who seek the true luxury of handmade craftsmanship.

At the Clerkenwell Design Week, we're delighted to showcase our artisanal collections, Papillon, Calathea, Kuspis, Exa3D Stella, Circle Set, gold and platinum decorations.

Join us as we unveil these exquisite creations, each meticulously crafted to embody elegance, innovation, and timeless beauty.

Explore the unique inspiration behind each series and immerse yourself in their captivating narratives.
