

PRESS RELEASE
MAY 2022

Discover Nowy Styl products at the new London showroom

Made in our production plants. Manufactured with a number of natural materials and our own components. Made to last and to match current needs. Explore a range of our products and feel free to test them in the new London showroom on St John's Square. The doors will open just in time for Clerkenwell Design Week: 24-26 May 2022.

Souly

See modern, touch eco

Fresh look, utmost comfort, ergonomic design and environment-friendly composition – you will find all this in a single chair! Souly was designed by Oscar Buffon and created for those who appreciate modernity and sustainability. The production process has been organised so as to minimise the use of raw materials and reduce the carbon footprint. When you decide to change the workspace arrangement, you can easily adjust the appearance of Souly by replacing the seat cushion, adding a headrest or lumbar support. This product is easy to assemble and will stay with you for years.

For the most demanding users

Desks, workbenches and conference tables from the eModel 2.0 line are designed to accommodate both standing and sitting positions, which means they will help you take some load off your spine and neck. Changing your position during the day, as you work, is good for your health. Plus, it boosts your comfort and makes you feel better at the end of the day. Easy electric adjustment means you can change the desk height in just a few seconds. eModel 2.0 products come with an anti-collision functionality - when it comes against an obstacle, desk will slide away to create a safe distance.

MeeThink

A good meeting starts with a good table

Why do we usually meet at a table? To analyse something, work together, relax, talk and think? We would like to present the MeeThink table, which comes in multiple options and can be adjusted to suit your needs. A multitude of variants makes it a piece of furniture that will find its place in a home office, conference room, creative zone or canteen.
