The Holmes Bespoke Naturals Edit Keeps Growing

Holmes Bespoke, a renowned brand specialising in handcrafted luxury rugs, is expanding its Naturals Edit with exciting new designs for 2023. Made entirely from natural fibres and crafted using centuries-old techniques by Holmes Bespoke's artisans in India, each rug in the Naturals Edit is one-of-a-kind.

The collection includes a wide variety of fibres such as wool, jute, linen, cotton and hemp, offering limitless design possibilities. By changing the height of the pile or using multiple fibres, Holmes Bespoke are able to create unusual and tactile effects that add depth and texture to any space.

Handwoven rugs, runners and fitted carpets are the perfect way to add a layer of texture, and due to their durability they work really well in heavy footfall areas. Perfect for the kitchen, dining areas or as an entrance runner. Natural flat weaves are often specified for hotels as well as private residences.

Among the new additions to the Naturals Edit are The Felix, a statement piece with soft raised detailing and a splash of colour; The Alba, an ombre-dyed rug featuring mediterranean hues; The Remi, designed using repeated lines and zigzags with an abundance of colour; The Roman, with eye-catching waves and The Diamond in Jute, which boasts warm natural tones with black accents and textural variation.

Laylah Holmes, Founder & Creative Director at Holmes Bespoke, said, "Our Naturals Edit is continuously evolving, and what I love most is creating new designs that present something unique and different to the last collection. Clerkenwell is the perfect backdrop to showcase these beautiful new rugs!"

With unrivalled dedication to exceptional craftsmanship and original design, Holmes Bespoke continues to offer clients beautiful bespoke rugs that reflect their individuality and taste.
