

GÖTESSONS DESIGN GROUP OPENS SHOWROOM

IN THE HEART OF CLERKENWELL, LONDON'S PRESTIGIOUS DESIGN DISTRICT

Götessons Design Group, originating from Sweden, proudly announces the opening of a new showroom in the heart of Clerkenwell, London's prestigious design district. This strategic expansion is rooted in the company's vision to inspire and reshape the modern workplace, with the goal of growing in the European market.

The spacious showroom covers 600 square meters and will serve as a dynamic platform for businesses in the office furniture segment, as well as interior design for schools, restaurants, hotels, and other public spaces. Visitors will find inspiration and the opportunity to explore a wide array of products from Götessons, David design, Am Acoustics, and Scan Sorlie - all brands under the Umbrella of Götessons Design Group.

A diverse exhibition of design and innovation

Visitors can expect to view smart acoustic solutions for walls and ceilings, flexible lounge furniture, ergonomic office chairs, stylish designed and intelligent furniture. Additionally, multiple screen partitions in the form of desk fixed and floor standing solutions will be available, along with a large number of decorative artificial plants, drums and pots, plus planters.

Mike Morgan, the UK Country Manager for Götessons Design Group, emphasises the significant role this new showroom plays in the company's presence in the region. "We're thrilled to introduce our extensive range to the British market, and look forward to inviting architects, designers, and purchasers to discover how the Götessons Design Group can transform workplaces into inspiring and functional environments," says Mike.

A vision for inspiring work environments

Jessica Carlstein, Marketing Manager for Götessons Design Group, shares her vision for the new showroom: "Opening a showroom in the well-known design district of Clerkenwell is a milestone for us. With our vast portfolio of products for public spaces, we aim to inspire Britons to create pleasant work environments where people can grow and thrive."
