ICS Furniture Debuts at Clerkenwell Design Week 2026: Bringing 50 Years of Irish Craftsmanship to Global Design

London, UK – ICS Furniture, a family-owned Irish designer and manufacturer with over 50 years of experience, is proud to announce its debut at Clerkenwell Design Week 2026. Renowned for its exceptional craftsmanship and tailored furniture solutions, ICS will showcase its innovative and adaptable designs, including the acclaimed ICON 40 chair, a modern, versatile seating solution that is changing the way architects and interior designers approach large spaces.

As one of Ireland's leading furniture design and manufacturers, ICS has completed over 3,500 projects worldwide, offering bespoke, turnkey furniture solutions for diverse sectors including places of worship, government buildings, educational institutions, and the hospitality industry. The company's seamless integration of design, consultation, manufacturing, and installation ensures that every project maintains the highest standards of quality and efficiency.

"We're excited to introduce ICS Furniture to a broader audience at Clerkenwell Design Week," said Gavin Duignan, Managing Director of ICS Furniture. "This marks a significant moment for us as we expand our international presence and collaborate with architects and interior designers who value both craftsmanship and design flexibility."

ICS Furniture's commitment to quality, innovation, and collaboration is epitomised in the ICON 40 chair. Designed by Gavin Duignan, the chair is engineered for comfort, functionality, and style, stacking up to 40 high for convenient storage in large spaces. Its adaptability makes it ideal for a wide range of environments, from modern interiors to more traditional settings. The chair's design excellence has earned recognition from the Institute of Designers in Ireland (IDI).

From traditional woodworking skills to cutting-edge production technologies, ICS Furniture blends artisanal craftsmanship with modern techniques, creating furniture that is both beautiful and functional. With a state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Ireland, ICS offers both standard and highly customisable solutions, including the unique ability to design and produce curved bench seating.
