Step 5 Do you want your radiator knob hidden?

This will directly affect how you measure your radiator, so pay close attention when you follow the steps online.

Yes, I have a normal knob

No, do not cover

Does your radiator have a thermostatic knob?

Unfortunately, a thermostatic knob cannot be covered, as the knob may not function properly as a result. The radiator can still be covered, but the knob should not be measured. Choose "No, do not cover" online. Do you have any questions or concerns about your knob? Don't hesitate to contact us.

Step 6 What are the dimensions of your radiator?

Measure your radiator in centimetres according to the instructions below. Follow them to a tee and your cover will turn out perfectly.

Order online!

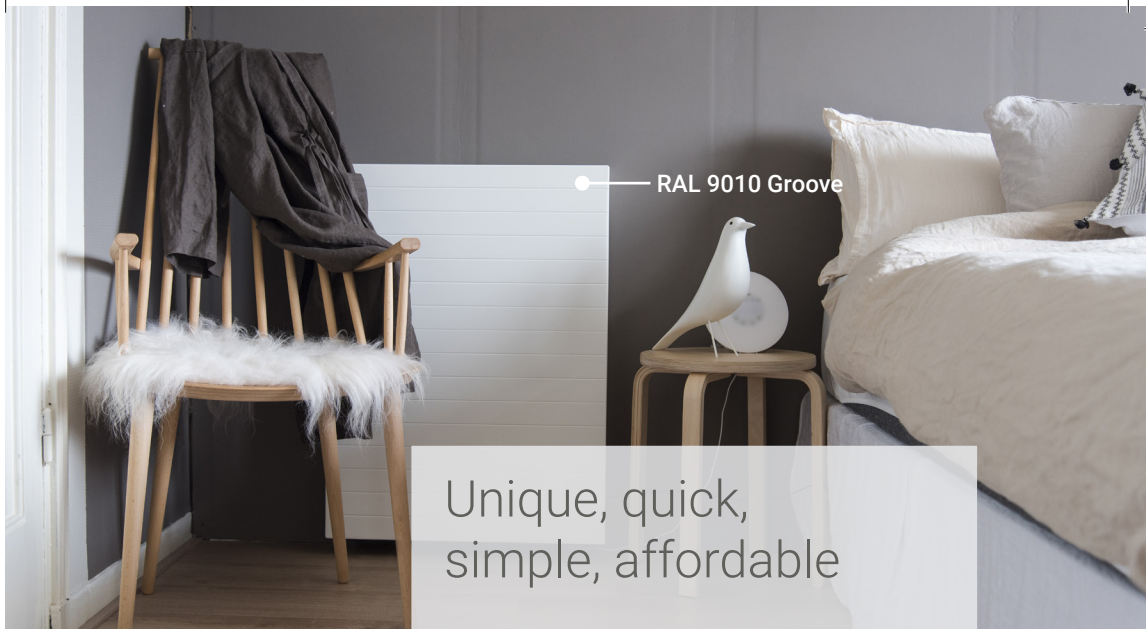

Enter the details of the covers at www.sentimo.co.uk/configurator and order your cover online. Or scan the QR code to start designing your cover! It is also possible to view the price list on pages 14-17.

Delivery time

The maximum delivery time is 30 days after placing an order.

Why choose Sentimo?

Most houses in the UK (and many other countries in Western Europe) contain traditional panel or column radiators. What if you were able to cover these eyesores with neatly designed metal radiator covers? A cover that allows the functional side of the radiator to stay intact (keeping your house warm and cosy) while giving a fresh new look to the radiator by adorning it with a stylish design and colour.

Sentimo differs from traditional wooden radiator cabinets. Wooden covers trap heat within the cabinet and conduct poorly, causing a lot of heat loss & high energy bills. Sentimo's metal radiator cover is the perfect heat conductor because it is placed directly on the radiator body, so that the heat from the radiator is instantly absorbed by the metal and transmitted into your living space.

In addition to powerful conduction, Sentimo also encourages free-flowing convection – each cover has an open bottom and grills at the top, allowing hot air from the radiator to continue to rise and keep your room toasty.

Installation is exceptionally easy and requires minimal assembly – simply click your new cover onto your existing radiator!
