“We had an excellent experience with GDB. All went to plan and the quality of the management of the project has been super. We felt in very good hands.”

-Matthew

“We used good design and build after we were recommend the company by a friend. They really went the extra mile to make things work for us and we are very pleased with the end result.”

-Annabelle

“I approached a number of companies and picked GDB as they provided a detailed specification and competitive price. The quality of the work was of a high standard and also completed quickly, with the minimum disruption. I would recommend GDB if you are considering building work.”

-Chris

“We chose GDB as we were impressed with their attention to detail on initial consultation. We have already recommended GDB to several friends and local residents and would have no hesitation in continuing to do so.”

-Kohmal
