Natural side of taste

Founded in Larisa, in 1972, is one of the pioneering canning industries in Greece. It is headquartered in Larisa, and owned by I. Schroeder KG Group, Germany, with branch offices in many countries around the globe.

The company's product line, varies from canned and jarred fruit, to olives, marmalades, toppings, aseptic products and more.

Situated in central Greece, benefits from the vicinity of the nearby fruit growing areas, offering perfect weather conditions for growing fruit, thus ensuring the freshness and the exceptional quality of the complete product line. The immediate access to major ports and highways, contributes greatly, to the prompt transportation of the goods worldwide. Furthermore, the modern, fully automated production machinery throughout the plant, backed by the staff's almost 50 years of experience, as well as the German - Greek management, make for the high level of quality, in all of our products.

Additionally, due to the high degree of the company's environmental awareness, a state of the art waste water treatment facility is used, to ensure the environmentally safe operation of the plant.
