

Buck & Birch

Award winning wild crafted spirits and liqueurs.

Rupert Waites - Co founder & Wilderness Director

Rupert's love for wild flavour was cemented during his childhood in the Highlands & islands of Scotland.

Throughout an illustrious cheffing career spanning 30 years his fascination for the wild never dwindled, devoting much of his life to unearthing the true taste of Scotland. What started in his garden shed has now grown into an unrivalled wild flavour library and forms the inspiration for all we do at Buck & Birch.

Buck & Birch is his chance to share his lifetime of flavour discovery with the world.

Tom Chisholm - Co founder & Creative Director

Tom grew up in Norway surrounded by wild fjords, forests and mountains. Early memories of picking berries and fungi with his grandmother never left him and sowed the seeds of possibilities of using local, seasonal and wild ingredients.

He would later move to Scotland where he would study fine art, before embarking on a 20+ year hospitality career in bars and restaurants.

Founding Buck & Birch with Rupert was a chance to bring all of his experiences and loves together.

KINDRED SPIRITS REBELLIOUS MINDS

At Buck & Birch we don't follow convention. We create unique expressions of our landscape, each bottle a celebration of the incredible variety of flavours respectfully harvested from our adventures into the wild.

These are drinks for the pleasure seekers, the adventurers, the foodies, chefs and cocktail creators. They are for those with an affinity for the great outdoors and a delight in their connection to it

NATURAL SUSTAINABLE & WILDY DIFFERENT

Our mission is to create exceptional spirits that celebrate, protect and enhance our wild spaces. We want more forests in Scotland and we work with community groups, crofters, landowners and other businesses to make this a reality.

MORE THAN JUST PLANTING TREES

Planting trees is crucial, but equally important is developing a long-term plan for their care. By collaborating closely with partners and local communities, we're fostering an integrated relationship to promote the mutual growth of our business and forests.

Proud to have BIRCH premium botanical vodka as the first ever food & drink product to gain a Grown in Britain accreditation, assurance that all of our woodland ingredients come from sustainably managed and maintained British woodlands.

BIRCH

PREMIUM BOTANICAL VODKA 39.6% ABV

The birch tree is a revered symbol in Scottish folklore and history, embodying renewal, purification, and protection.

Renowned for its resilience in Scotland's terrain, it symbolizes a deep connection to tradition. As Scotland advances, the birch stands as a testament to its heritage and spirit, reminding of the bond between land, people, and tradition.

BIRCH, our pioneering, premium botanical vodka, is crafted from pure birch sap and infused with wild birch flavours harvested throughout the seasons.

Smooth, sophisticated and as elegant as its namesake, BIRCH is a truly contemporary expression of Scotland and perfect for any occasion.

NATURALLY SMOOTH

The smoothness of birch sap stems from its unique characteristics. With a low sugar content and high water concentration, it possesses a light texture that glides effortlessly over the palate.

60% of every bottle contains pure, raw sap, which gives BIRCH its luxuriously silky texture and distinctively smooth finish.

THE BIRCH ONE-POUR MARTINI

Few cocktails are as elegant, sophisticated or satisfying as a classic Martini.

BIRCH botanical vodka is the perfect Martini serve, the subtle, herbaceous floral notes of the botanicals act as the vermouth and the exquisite texture of the sap gives the drink a velvet smoothness that is simply sublime.

AS EASY AS ONE, TWO, TREE...

To make a BIRCH One-Pour Martini simply follow these 3 basic steps:

STEP 1: - Place bottle in freezer (for a couple of hours at least)

STEP 2 - Pour into your glass. No need for vermouth - the birch botanicals in BIRCH take care of the seasoning, and the birch sap gives this Martini a viscosity and mouth feel that is simply stunning.

STEP 3 - Pick your favourite garnish and serve

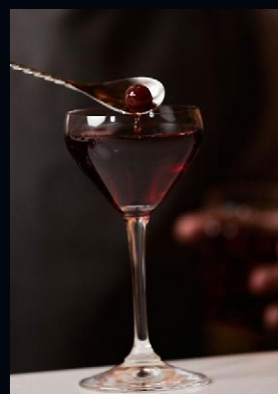

FLAVOUR FIRST & SEASONED WITH SPIRIT

At Buck & Birch we are uncompromising in our commitment to celebrate our wild ingredients in all their glory.

We want their character and flavour to shine, expertly selecting spirits to enhance and compliment, and adding depth and seasoning with hand picked wild herbs.

Complexity and balance is in everything we do, meaning our liqueurs and spirits are perfect neat or mixed in cocktails.
