WHY MIAMI AND THE U.S.?

2023 was a record year for Miami with 27.2 million visitors spending an estimated $21.1 billion. Miami has become a go-to destination for business expansion, growth, and investment across numerous industries.¹

According to market research agency STR, Greater Miami continues to rank among the top 10 US cities in the three key metrics used to measure hotel success – occupancy (#7), average daily rate (#5) and revenue per available room (#4).¹

In the first quarter of 2025, U.S. hotel occupancy will grow 2.2% year over year, ADR will increase 2.3% and RevPAR will grow 3.5%.²

The North America Luxury Hotel Market size is estimated at USD 40.16 billion in 2024, and is expected to reach USD 60.38 billion by 2029, growing at a CAGR of 8.5% during the forecast period (2024-2029).³

Looking ahead to 2025, LE analysts anticipate an additional 790 new hotels with 85,561 rooms to open in the U.S., resulting in a 1.5% supply increase. Miami alone currently has 60 hotel projects, equating to 10,564 rooms, in the pipeline.⁴

Miami is expected to end 2024 as one of the top five strongest performing hotel markets along with New York City, Washington, DC, Austin, and Charleston. Miami is also one of the top four markets that are most attractive for hotel investments.⁵

Miami is easily accessible – 1,000+ flights daily through Miami International Airport, which is the largest gateway between the United States and south to Central America and the Caribbean.

All of this makes Miami a convenient destination for hoteliers and the ideal location for the U.S. edition of the Independent Hotel Show.
