ABOUT

LETINA TILES

Letina ceramics is one of the well known brand of the kalyan group a reputed and 2 decade experienced ceramic manufacturing group, coming from morbi, gujarat in india.

- The group has been in existence since 1995 and it was also amongst the first few manufacturing units of india. With such a regal lineage on its shoulder, letina ceramic was brought to life to address the niche segment of the market. Under this venture, the group develops unique and luxurious wall tiles having an exclusive portrayal of the fancy and magnificent design framework.
- Letina ceramic has the largest and most modern digital wall tile manufacturing plant in morbi, gujarat, in india where state of the art technology is employed to deliver pioneering products to the domestic as well as international market. The brand offers a vast range of tile design options with a comprehensive product palette, letina ceramics has become the flag bearer of class in the industry. It has carved out a prominent status through high end technology manufacturing unit, modern designs and excellent products.
